

Koskan selected Moonlight on Bay honoree

Dr. Irene Koskan

THE SEA COAST ECHO
Internal Medicine Specialist Irene Koskan of Waveland will be honored at the Hancock Medical Center Foundation's Moonlight on the Bay gala Friday, September 10. The ninth annual dinner dance will be hosted at the Bay St. Louis Casino Magic's Cypress Cove Ballroom. A sell-out event is anticipated, according to organizer Janet McQueen.

Known for dedication to her patients, Dr. Koskan has been on the Hancock Medical Center staff for 23 years. She and her husband, Ophthalmologist Allan Koskan, chose to make Waveland their home after practicing in other areas. She is a graduate of George Washington University and attended medical school in her parents' native country of Greece. She completed a residency in internal medicine at Tulane Medical School and practiced emergency medicine at Touro Infirmary in New Orleans and Memorial Hospital at Gulfport. A past queen of Nereids carnival association, Dr. Koskan also served on the Bay-Waveland School Board and remains active in the Greek Orthodox Church. The Koskans have two daughters, Maria and Alexis.

Moonlight on the Bay features a silent auction highlighting donations by local artists, businesses and individuals. John "Chappy" Chapman will conduct a first-time limited live auction at the event, featuring vacation trips to Big Sky, Montana and New York City, as well as dinner for eight prepared in his home. Guests can dance till midnight to music by "Witness." For more information, call (228) 467-8790.

11th Annual Art in the Pass set for Sept. 25-26

The 11th annual Art in the Pass festival will be held the weekend of September 25-26, 2004. The festival, which is free to the public, will feature original artwork, music by Gulf Coast Favorite Bobby Allison, children's activities, a silent auction and a food court. The festival is held at Pass Christian War Memorial Park located on Scenic Drive overlooking the beach.

Over 70 artists from Louisiana to Florida will display and sell their artwork. A diverse collection of art featuring classic to modern styles will be on display this year in a variety of mediums including painting, sculpture, woodworking, glass art, stained-glass, mosaics, jewelry, decorative and functional pottery, ceramics, photography, hand-painted furniture, book-binding and printmaking.

Bobby Allison, singer and songwriter, will headline and emcee this year's festival. During the festival, different performing groups including dancers from Diane Desportes Dance Academy and the Ocean Springs Cloggers will join Bobby. The Pass Christian Middle and High School choruses will kick-off the festival on Saturday morning at 10 am.

The annual Silent Auction of original works of art donated by the participating artists supports the Dot Hector Memorial Art Scholarship.

A children's art area will be available on Saturday and Sunday courtesy of Michael's Arts and Crafts Store. The Children's Tent will feature free 'make and take' craft projects for all ages. Face painting will also be available at the festival.

This year's Food Court will have a great choice of food and drinks, including hot dogs, hamburgers, barbecue, pizza, egg rolls, seafood, jambalaya, shrimp sausages, alligator sausages and crawfish sausages, and sweets, as well as cold water, beer, wine coolers and soft drinks. Tables and seating will be available at the court.

Art in the Pass coincides with several other events in Pass Christian. Celebrate the Gulf Marine Education Festival hosted by the Mississippi Department of Marine Resources and the Pass Christian Yacht Club's Around the Cat Sailing Race are both held on Saturday September 25. In addition, the Pass Christian Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the first annual Merchant Connection in conjunction with the art festival. Parking is free, and a free trolley will transport festival-goers between the two festivals and throughout town the weekend of the festival.

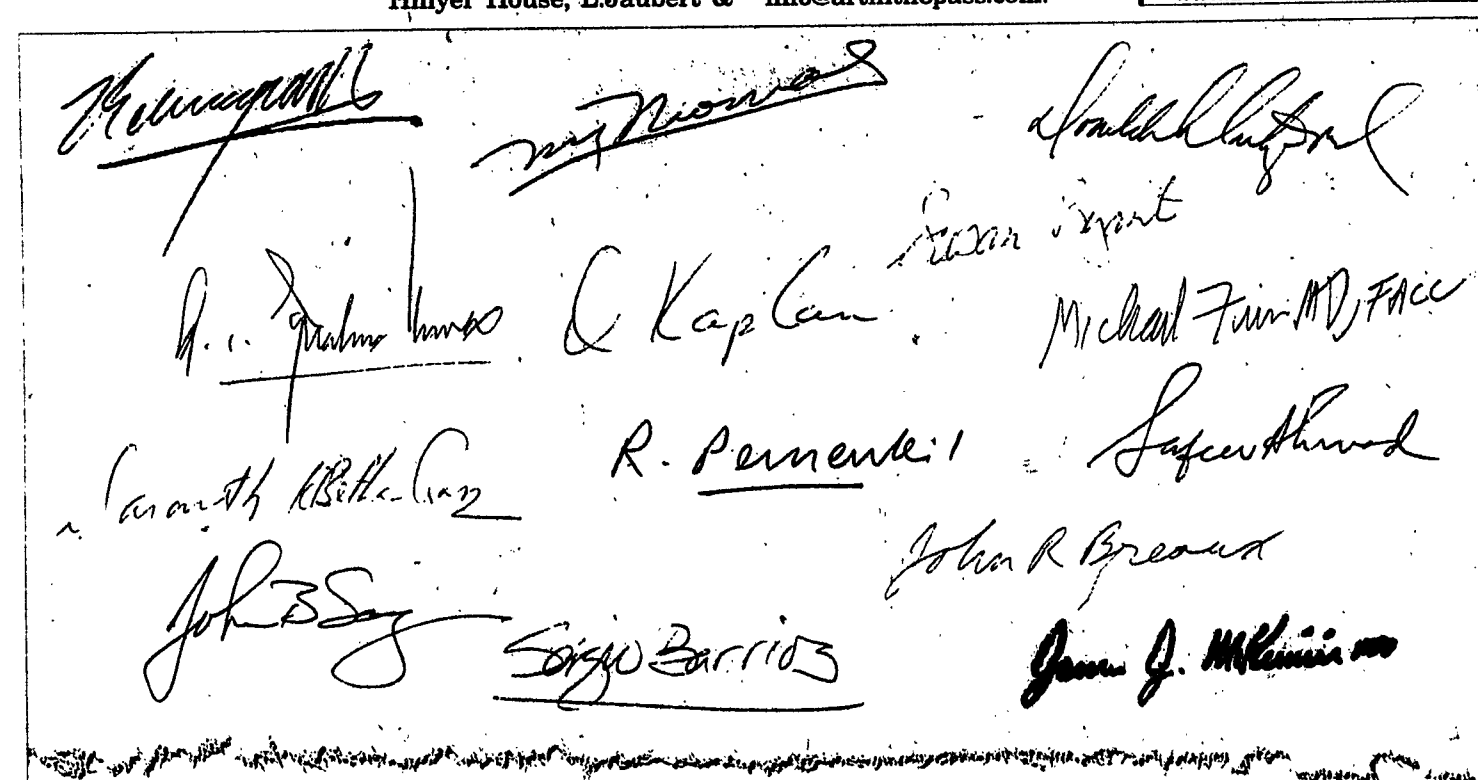

2004 Sponsors of Art in the Pass are the Pass

Christian Chamber of Commerce, City of Pass Christian, Lamar Advertising, Wal-Mart of Pass Christian, Harrison County Tourism Bureau, Department of Marine Resources, Coffee News of South Mississippi, Domino's Pizza, DuPont, Gambit Weekly, Hancock Bank, Harrison Co. Board of

Supervisors, Jackson Free Press, K-99FM, Michael's Arts and Crafts, Pass Christian Books, Sawyer Real Estate, Triton, Twin Oaks Assisted Living Facility, UBS Financial Services, WCPR 97.9 FM, Plum Homes, A. Garner Russell & Associates, Gene Taylor, U.S. Congressman, Hillyer House, L. Jaubert &

Foundation Funds local charities

The Brett Favre Forward Foundation last week awarded almost $200,000 to south Mississippi charities that serve young people. The checks were presented on behalf of the Foundation by Deanna Favre and Beth Seymore, the Foundations's new Director.

In addition to The Hancock County Boys and Girls Club and Gaits to Success, the Foundation donated $20,000 to Hope Haven Children's Shelter for abused and neglected children.

"Hope Haven owes so much to Brett and the Foundation," stated Terry

Latham, Hope Haven Director.

They were the first private Foundation to support us and the credibility their support provided was just as important as the monetary award. When we could include Brett Favre as one of our supporters ... people knew we were a legitimate and worthwhile charity. The Brett Favre Forward Foundation has positively impacted the lives of hundreds of local kids and no matter what happens on the football field ... that makes Brett... his entire family and the Foundation Board ... our heroes."

Library System to close for Labor Day

All four branches of the Hancock County Library System - Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library, Kiln Public Library, Pearlinton Public Library and Waveland Public Library - will close Monday, September 6, for a state holiday. The branches will reopen for business on Tuesday, September 7 at 9:00 a.m.

Library users needing to return items should use the exterior book returns located at all four branches: Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library, Kiln Public Library, Pearlinton Public Library and Waveland Public Library.

For more information, contact Adrienne Bradley, Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library, 467-5282; Karen Cotton, Waveland Public Library, 467-9240; Sandra Ladner, Kiln Public Library, 255-1724; or Deborah Hill, Pearlinton Public Library, 533-0755.

Hancock County man awarded over $1.4 million in civil suit

BILOXI, Miss. (AP)- A Hancock County man has been awarded over $1.4 million in damages for injuries he suffered during unnecessary brain surgery.

Surgeon Michael Lowry and radiologist Michael Diaz were accused of causing permanent neurological damage to Charles Connetti.

Connetti and his wife, Carmen, sued the doctors at Memorial Hospital in Gulfport and Charity Hospital in New Orleans in 2001 after Lowry performed brain surgery to remove a 4.5-centimeter cyst. Doctors later learned the cyst was in the brain of another patient, Robert King, who later died.

In Harrison County Circuit Court on Wednesday, a jury held Lowry 45 percent responsible for Connetti's neurological problems. The judgment against Lowry means he owes $810,000 in damages.

Diaz was held 35 percent responsible, which means he owes $630,000 in damages.

The jury found that Memorial Hospital had a 20 percent responsibility, but the hospital settled out of court for an undisclosed amount.

Lowry had acknowledged that he was looking at King's MRI film, but believed it belonged to Connetti. Connetti's lawyer, John Giddens of Jackson, said King's name was on the film 16 times.

"I don't think the verdict is out of line with what we proved," Giddens said. "We feel that we proved ... that he was going to need over $1.1 million just in future care and medical expenses."

Giddens also is representing King's family in a separate lawsuit. That case is expected to go to trial in 2005.

Paul Delcambre, Lowry's lawyer, declined to comment. Pete Bloss, who represents Diaz, said he couldn't comment on information presented at trial.

Bonfire ordinances to be enforced

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
Publisher Emeritus

The Cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland, both have ordinances requiring a bonfire permit. Both municipalities also have certain areas to where they can be built too, according to the fire chiefs.

Waveland's ordinance restricts bonfires to only on the beach in front of Buccaneer State Park, Fire Chief David Garcia reports. Their height is not to exceed three feet and width is not to exceed six feet.

Bay St. Louis' ordinance restricts bonfires only from the Washington Street pier to Ramaneda Street, Fire Chief Bobby Gavagnie said.

Bay St. Louis has a $100 deposit cleanup permit, while Waveland has a $25 deposit cleanup.

Both municipalities require only natural woods can be used, not treated materials, or those with nails, or staples.

The party securing the permits is also held responsible for the cleanup of the area.

No glass materials are to be used on the beaches.

In Waveland, a permit can be secured from the City's fire station.

Bay St. Louis has a requirement of not releasing a permit before 48 hours before the event and no use of wire or coat hangers for the roasting of marshmallows, or hot-dogs.

The Bay's hours to secure a permit from the Fire Department is between 8 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Both fire chiefs indicated information on all restrictions will be given when a permit is received. Also, a permit could be revoked because of severe weather conditions.

Permits are also necessary for county beaches according to Hancock County Fire Marshal Brian Adam.

An ordinance was approved by the Hancock County Board of Supervisors requiring a bonfire permit to be issued from the Emergency Management Office, (County Fire Marshall), or the Fire Department having jurisdiction of the public beach.

On Monday, Adam and Clermont Harbor Fire Chief Charlie Johnson said, there is a $50 deposit fee for the permit, which will be returned following a proper cleanup.

Permits can be obtained from three days prior to the bonfire event from the Fire Marshal's Office, behind the Court Annex on Ulman Avenue, Bay St. Louis, between the hours of 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Mondays through Fridays. Or, by contacting Clermont Harbor Fire Chief Johnson at the fire station, 467-3345, or his phone, 467-5008.

Both Adam and Johnson said, "There are several regulations for bonfires according to the ordinance. The reason of course, is for the safety of all beach users."

Among the regulations include:

-A $50 cleanup deposit for permit, refundable if area properly cleaned,

-Applicants must be age 18, or older, permits to be issued within three days prior to event,

-Only natural woods can be used, such as logs or limbs, no material with foreign matter such as nails, staples, creosote or treated, no pallets, etc.,

-No more than 8 feet high and 6 feet in diameter,

-No gasoline, or diesel used to start fire,

-All debris must be removed from the beach sand by the parties before leaving,

-Please do not use the trash barrels to stash the ashes,

-No bonfires on beach right-a-way,

- and Permits will be revoked if winds are 35 mph, or higher.

"The reason for the ordinance by the supervisors is to make our beaches safe for the users, as we do not want someone injuring themselves by stepping on a foreign object such as a nail, or staple. We also want to keep our beach clean and with a good appearance," both Adam and Johnson emphasized.

Supervisor David Yarborough, who district includes the new beach in the Clermont Harbor/Lakeshore area said, "We now have a very nice beach and we would like to keep it clean and very nice. A big asset to the new beach too, is that we have lots of parking for beach users in the area."

Your community, your doctors, your hospital.

Pediatrics

It's a special thing to live in a place like Hancock County. Here, hard-working folks relish in the amenities of coastal living and a close-knit community. And your doctors are a part of your community, from being active in service organizations to cheering kids in the football fields.

That same commitment flows into the offices of Hancock Medical Center doctors, who provide excellent personal care and the trust you've trusted for generations.

Enjoy Wave Fest and try to avoid Hurricane Francis

A lot of planing has gone into efforts by the Coleman Avenue merchants and City of Waveland for 'Wave Fest' 2004 scheduled for today. Activities will be throughout the day with things starting to happen with a 5K run at 8 a.m.

The run is open to runners and walkers of all ages, with registration beginning at 7 a.m. at the Garfield Lader Memorial pier.

Also at 8 a.m. registration for the antique car show will begin a go to 10 a.m. when activities get into full swing.

There will be a sand sculpting contest, live bands will perform throughout the day, there will be children's games and rides. Just things for folks of all ages to do.

There will be craft booths, foods, beverages, rock wall bungee, community entertainment, dancers, singers, and the day will end with a fireworks display by the City of Waveland around 8 p.m.

Sounds like great things will be happening on Coleman Avenue in Waveland today for folks of all ages.

Have a great time folks!

As I write this column, many are concerned with Hurricane Francis which is bearing down on Florida and possible into the Gulf of Mexico.

For sure, we all need to be concerned about Frances, as no one really knows the exact track a hurricane will take.

Preparations are very important for those of us residing along the coastal areas because of hurricane threats.

Florida has already been beaten by two storms this season and it sure looks like it will take another hit.

Hopefully the storm will veer north and no one will feel its effects on the mainland.

We all really need to stay tuned to weather reports on this hurricane, in case it crosses into the Gulf and then heads for our area.

This is a very big storm and winds have reached 145 mph which are very strong.

What Social Security needs to know when someone dies

Shawn Mercer, SSA
Public Affairs Specialist

Sadly, at some time in our lives, most of us will have to help with funeral arrangements for a family member or loved one. During that time of sorrow, it can be difficult to handle the many practical matters that also must be taken care of.

These practical matters include contacting Social Security. Knowing in advance what to expect can help make this task easier.

If the deceased person was already receiving Social Security benefits, we need to be notified. In many instances, a funeral home will take care of some initial notification. However, a family member or other person responsible for the beneficiary's affairs should still promptly notify Social Security of the beneficiary's death by calling our toll-free number, 1-800-772-1213.

If monthly benefits were being paid through direct deposit, a family member should also notify the bank or other financial institution of the beneficiary's death. They should request that any funds received for the month of death and later be returned to Social Security. If benefits were being paid by check, it is important not to cash any checks received for the month in which the beneficiary died or thereafter, and to return the checks to Social Security as soon as possible.

If you are getting benefits as a wife or husband based on your spouse's work, when you report the death to us, we will change your payments to survivors benefits.

If you are getting benefits based on your own work, contact us to see if you can get more money as a widow or widower. You will receive the higher benefit amount, not a total of the two types of benefits. You will need to complete an application to switch to survivors benefits, and we may need to see your spouse's death certificate.

Any child receiving benefits automatically will be switched to survivors benefits after the death of a parent is reported to us. We will contact you if we need more information on the case.

If you are not currently getting Social Security benefits, you should inquire about survivors benefits promptly because, in some cases, benefits will be paid from the time you apply and not from the time the worker died.

There is also a Social Security lump-sum death benefit of $255 that is available to eligible spouses or dependent children. The survivor can complete the necessary application at the local Social Security office.

So remember: when the time comes that you must deal with a death in the family, Social Security will be there to help make taking care of some inevitable practical matters as easy as possible.

FROM THE BIG APPLE TO....

Do the truly Christian thing & respect others

Dear Sirs,
I feel compelled to write this letter after an experience we encountered recently.

My husband was under going spinal surgery and my aunt and I were waiting in the waiting room. There were others also waiting to get updates and reports on their loved ones.

As you are aware the waiting room was designed to hold a maximum of about 25 to 30 people. A very nice volunteer kept coffee going and updated us all as the phone calls came in.

As we waited a group of people all crammed in, I lost count at 28, men, women and children. We were enlightened later this was a church that showed up to wait on their pastor's surgery.

I am all for supporting your church and your pastor, but these people came in a party mood. Very noisy and disrupting. I am a nervous person and I became quite stressed. I was in no mood for this.

I guess someone must have said something, because the lady began fussing and saying and I quote "I am paying for this and if I want the church here, I will have them here!"

My husband and I were also paying, as I am sure every other family that waiting was also paying. Should I have invited my church? Should they invite theirs?

Then the lady said her husband's surgery was not a simple surgery. What surgery is? I feel when a family member is put to sleep it's not simple, to anyone. Especially their family members.

I prayed this pastor would receive a blessing from God and God will bless him and his church, and I pray for his complete recovery.

I do hope one of his first sermons from his pulpit will be on the feelings of others. I don't feel any one of his people had any feelings that day. I certainly felt no Christian attitudes from any of them.

I personally think the right thing would have been for this church to have had a prayer session in their church and had updates called in to them. They could have also donated a few hours each week to sit with their beloved pastor.

Again I want to stress the wonderful way the volunteer handled this situation, she must have made ten pots of coffee as these people drained each one and even after some of them moved into the fathers waiting room they came back and forth for coffee. Thank you for reading this.

Alyssa

stomach pains and by Saturday even her feet were swollen. On Monday she was feeling even worse, but doctors offices were closed for the Mardi Gras holiday so she decided to just hold out. But when she checked her blood pressure at a local store, it was high, so she called her doctor on Tuesday and went to the hospital.

Her toxemia had become a real problem by now, sending Raquel's liver enzymes soaring. Alyssa was beginning to loose blood flow across the placenta. By Wednesday morning doctors had made a decision, Alyssa would have a better chance of survival outside the womb. She was taken by cesarean section at Noon on Wednesday and officially born at 12:05 p.m.

Her birthday would be the first of 90 long days of hospitalization for Alyssa and her parents, Raquel and father Greg. For the 90 days the couple would make two trips a day to be with their daughter while holding down jobs at Sams in Slidell. Alyssa came home May 24.

"They were great at work," said Raquel. "Giving us time off when we needed it." Raquel returned to work after eight weeks and then took another month off after Alyssa came home. Greg also took a month off after Alyssa came home so they were able to be home with her for two months.

At first they were not even encouraged to touch the tiny baby because doctors were concerned that too much stimulation could have a negative effect on her development. After all, Alyssa would normally have been in the quiet isolated world of the womb for many more months. They were also concerned about infection.

At first Alyssa was on a ventilator for about three and a half weeks and had to be greased with a Vaseline type substance to keep her thin skin moist. Once she was off the ventilator, the Flemings said, they knew they were home free as far as the chances for Alyssa's survival. By March 22 she was breathing on her own but required pressurized oxygen to keep her lungs open. By April 23 she was able to survive with a non-pressurized oxygen supply.

Treatment to close a heart valve still open due to her premie status was successful. On June 25 she had laser eye surgery to correct another premie condition. A large red bubble on her arm called a hemangioma will eventually shrivel and disappear. Now other than having to wear an apnea monitor to alert her parents if she stops breathing, she is a normal baby, say Greg and Raquel.

Staff from South Mississippi Regional Center's Project Prints make regular visits to see Alyssa to make sure her development is where it should be. Some developmental skills will be beyond her actual three month age and some will be below, said Raquel, but generally she is just where she should be. The couple learned that most preemies "catch up" developmentally in the first two years of life to their birth age, which for Alyssa would be six months at this point.

Alyssa seems to have no problem making her needs known. On Thursday she fussed relentlessly until Raquel got her what she wanted, apple juice. She drank the bottle down in seconds flat and was a perfect little lady after that.

The Flemings will serve as ambassadors for the March of Dimes Walk America on November 13. The three mile walk will begin at the Bay St. Louis Train Depot at 3 p.m. Funds raised in conjunction will be used to fund more research on the cause of premature births. To contribute or for more information call Kay Daneault at 228-896-0886.

Southern Regional's debt service. The district receives no tax revenues and has already laid off six full time employees since January.

In other business:

The first evidence that the Hancock County Water and Sewer Board had that Hancock County resident Joey Boudin was illegally dumping waste from his port-a-potty business Joey Boudin Hauling into a dumping station at Buccaneer Park was when resident Martin De Salvo presented the facts at a late July meeting, said board attorney J. P. Compretta.

"The board was shocked," said Compretta.

Apparently Boudin had been dumping at the site that RV's and campers use at the park for some time. Boudin was also dumping at a site on his own property on Harbor Drive in the Bayou Phillips neighborhood. For that site, Boudin was paying Hancock County Water and Sewer a standard $70 commercial use fee, said district director Eddie Renz, and his bills were paid and up to date for that account.

DeSalvo had questioned county supervisors about the operation after the late June trial in which Boudin was fined for violations in another business, a dirt-mining operation. Board attorney Ronnie Artigues advised board members at that time that they should look into the matter.

District officials say they received no inquiries from the board and became aware of the situation in late July when DeSalvo presented excerpts from the court transcript. At that time, they agreed to investigate the allegations, they say.

That investigation yielded evidence of the illegal dumping and the decision to levy a $720 back-use fine on Boudin. The board ordered Boudin to cease any dumping operations anywhere but on his own property and increased his $70 a month commercial treatment fee to a $150 heavy industrial use fee. Boudin also agreed to install, at his own expense, a duplex grinder system to handle the increased use, said Renz. Boudin would also be required to install a flow meter, said Compretta.

The chemicals used in the port-a-potty business are environmentally safe and approved, said Compretta. They are safe, the same ones used in RV systems, and able to be treated at the Southern Regional Wastewater Plant without causing problems in the treatment system, he said.

affect the Mississippi coast and the Louisiana coast," Butch said.

Butch Loper, director of the Jackson County Civil Defense, said he's telling coastal residents to be on alert.

"I hate to get people in a panic for nothing," Loper said, adding that he wouldn't feel out of harm's way until Frances was "north of me about 100 miles."

Said Loper: "I've been through them since 1965, and I think every one has its own way of doing things."

A good example of a hurricane's unpredictability was Elena. In September 1985, Elena hit Cuba before churning through the Gulf of Mexico toward Mississippi. The hurricane veered toward Florida and punished portions of that coast, only to circle around and hit Mississippi that Labor Day weekend.

Brian Adam, director of the Hancock County Emergency Management Agency, said "there are too many variables" to know whether the storm will eventually cause problems for Mississippi.

Adam said he has put his staff on alert and advising residents to watch weather reports.

Women's club to meet Thursday

The ladies of the Hancock Women's Club will meet on September 9 at Jack's Restaurant on Coleman Avenue in Waveland at 10:30 a.m. This luncheon marks the beginning of the Fall session for the club, and the group welcomes ladies in the Hancock County area who may be interested in doing charitable work, while having fun. The organization is 24 years old and is planning a busy and interesting agenda for its Fall schedule.

Pirates lose in double overtime 36-33

BY STEVE SMITH
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

Pass High's Pirates showed incredible fortitude in Friday night's contest against the Long Beach Bearcats, fighting back to tie in regulation, only to come up short in the second overtime period.

The Pirates won the toss and deferred to the second half, kicking to the Bearcats. Starting at their 25 yardline, Long Beach covered the distance to the Pirate end-zone in under three minutes on the running of quarterback Clayton Stevens and tailback Joe Lacour.

Stevens scored the touchdown on a sweep to the right and the Bearcats led 7-0 after a successful PAT kick.

Pass Christian's Aaron Saucier electrified the crowd with a 95-yard kickoff return to bring the Pirates within one. The point after failed and the score stood at 7-6.

The Bearcats countered with a good return and set their offense at their 47 yardline. In under two minutes, Long Beach ran six plays covering 53 yards and scored on a 28-yard pass from Stevens to Ken Cook.

The PAT kick was good and Long Beach led 14-6.

Pass High lost a fumble on the next series but quickly regained possession on an interception by Aaron Saucier. Unable to sustain a drive, however, the Pirates' Brett Sanders punted away and the ball rolled to the Bearcat 30 yardline.

Long Beach drove to the Pirate 11 yardline before giving the ball over on downs after Jaren Bowser sacked Stevens at the line on fourth-and-three.

The Pirates went three-and-out on the next series and the Bearcats returned the punt to the Pirate 26. Pass High's defense stalled the Long Beach attack but a field goal attempt was successful and the Bearcats were ahead, 17-6.

The Pirates returned fire with a 33-yard Jonathan Willis field goal, making the score 17-9 at the half.

Long Beach's "Marching Bearcat Band" under Director Casey Caviness and Bob Bruce's "Mighty Marching Pirates" entertained during intermission. The Pirates took the second half kickoff back to the 22 yardline, but a holding call set them back and Sanders punted.

A nice return by Ken Cook set up the next Long Beach score as Stevens passed 18 yards to Eric Tisdale. The PAT kick sailed through the uprights and the Bearcats led 24-9.

Momentum swung in favor of the Pirates on the next series as the Bearcats stalled the Pirate offensive on fourth-and-twentyfour from the 40 yardline. A roughing the kicker penalty, which injured Brett Sanders, gave the Pirates a first down at the Bearcat 45 yardline. Jaren Bowser ran for 11 yards and a first down at the 33 yardline and Brandon Miller hauled in a Chad Moore pass for a first-and-goal at the one. Moore faked to Bowser and took it in for the score. The PAT kick was good making the score 24-16.

With the Bearcats threatening midway through the fourth quarter, Jaren Bowser scooped up a Long Beach fumble and returned it 75 yards for a touchdown and a two point conversion tied the score at 24-24.

In the first overtime period, Long Beach scored a touchdown but missed the point after, Pass High countered with six points to tie at 30-30, also missing the PAT.

The Pirates went first in the second overtime period, managing a field goal, but the Bearcat's Ira Smith ran for the winning touchdown.

The Pirates host St. John next Friday before beginning district play at Bay St. Louis on September 17.

Bay High, OLA win in volleyball

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The OLA Crescents got back on the winning track on Thursday, September 2 with a victory over Pope John Paul II of Slidell in three games. The Lady Tigers of Bay High also got a win over Long Beach in five games.

The Crescents defeated the Lady Jaguars 25-19, 25-7 and 25-9. Margaret Rittiner and Amada Meyers each had 13 points while Rachel Cuevas added 10 points.

Lauren Renz led the team with 10 kills followed by Cuevas with 8 and Jordan Fisher with 6.

Cuevas added 10 assists to her stat sheet and Renz 9.

The win improved the Crescents' record to 13-3 after dropping two consecutive games.

In junior varsity action, the Crescents defeated Pope John Paul II 25-15 and 25-11.

Shelly Reboul led the team with 10 points followed by Emily Hall and Ashley Blalock with 5 each.

Lauren Poncet had 6

kills to pace OLA followed by Shelly Reboul and Katherine Loblano with 4 each. Reboul also tallied 10 assists followed by Lakasia Ducksworth with 5. The JV record now stands at 7-1.

OLA will play again on Tuesday, September 7 at home against Slidell.

The Bay High Lady Tigers took the Long Beach Lady Bearcats to five games winning 22-25, 25-23, 25-19, 17-25 and 15-13.

Tamara Reed led Bay High with 15 points followed by Lindsey Trotter with 13 points.

The Pass Christian Lady Pirates dropped their game with Long Beach on Tuesday 8-25, 18-25, and 18-25.

Stephanie Beale paced the Lady Pirates with 7 points followed by Jessica Walters with 5.

In junior varsity action, Pass Christian fell to Long Beach 12-25 and 26-28.

Shallon Swanier led the JV with 7 points followed by Tarah Cotton with 6 points.

Pass Christian will take to the courts on September 7 on the road at Biloxi.

Friday night's game between the Hancock Hawks and the Biloxi Indians was a big success for the City of Biloxi. The game ball was dropped to the field along with three skydivers from nearby Keesler Air Force Base, and Biloxi Mayor A.J. Holloway gave the dedication of the beautiful new Indian Stadium, complete with a new state of the art astro-play surface, similar to the turf in the Superdome.

When the game started, the Indians showed off too, as they pleased their huge home crowd with a lop-sided victory over the Hancock Hawks, 41-0.

Hancock struggled on offense, managing only 132 yards total in the game. The Hawks were held to only four first downs by an Indian defense that has not allowed a point this year.

"Once again, I can say that I'm proud of our effort, but we need to do a few things better," Hawks head coach Walt Esslinger said.

Hancock was playing short handed, with starting center Scott Nesom out for three weeks, and starting nose tackle Donavan Saucier suffered a knee injury in the first quarter.

The Hawks played plenty of youngsters. Freshman Chris Jochum, Brently Necaise, and Chase Mciver all saw plenty of action.

Hancock got off to a rough start, misplaying the opening kickoff and the Indians fell on the loose ball at the 25.

Biloxi took advantage quickly when Brett Hudson took a quarterback keeper 17 yards for a touchdown. Robert Gifford added the point after, and the Indians led 7-0 just 42 seconds into the game.

The Indians would strike twice more in the first quarter, with Damien Fletcher scoring on a pair of two-yard touchdown runs at the 6:20 mark, and then with 46 sec-

At the end of the first quarter the Hawks found themselves way down, 21-0.

The Indians took over again at the 10:25 mark of the second quarter. This time the Hawks defense came up with a big play when Jonathan Lacoste forced a fumble which Justin Kopf recovered, at the Indians 37.

Hancock picked up a first down behind a nice run from Braxton Necaise of nine yards, but eventually turned the ball over on downs at the 19.

The Hawks defense then came up with another big play when Alex Toups sacked Hudson, and the Indians were forced to punt from their own five-yard line.

But the Hawks were unable to capitalize and punted the ball back to the Indians, who took over with just two minutes to play in the half.

Biloxi attempted to throw the ball downfield, but Larry Beech intercepted a pass from Hudson, with just seconds to play in the half.

The Hawks looked to get on the board, as Braxton Necaise completed a nice 46-yard pass to Hustin Kopf to the Indians 12-yard line, but the clock expired, and the Indians took a 21-0 lead into the half.

The Hawks attempted to get back into the game, as they went for an on-sides kick to start the second half. The ball bounced off of an Indian, and Mark Fairley recovered the ball at the 45 for the Hawks. The team was again unable to move the ball, and punted the ball back to the Indians.

The Indians would go on a seven play drive that covered 78-yards, to score. Fletcher capped the drive with a 26-yard rumble, his third score of the game. The extra point made the score 28-0.

The Indians tacked on another score in the third quarter, when Billy Alexander plunged in from three yards out, at the 5:52 mark.

After a fumbled punt by the Hawks, the Indians looked to score again as the fourth quarter started. The Hawks turned the Indians away when Beech forced a fumble that Adam Dulane recovered for the Hawks at the 13.

Defense saves win for Tigers 24-20

BY MAURICE SINGLETON
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

Kyle Moran's seventeenth tackle of the night was his biggest tackle of the game as the Tigers defense held off the surging St. John Eagles. Facing a fourth and short yardage for a first down at the Tigers 12 yard line, Moran brought down the Eagle ball carrier about a foot short of a first down with 20 seconds remaining on the clock. The Tigers ran out the clock in route to their 24-20 win in Gulfport on Friday night.

"Our defense did a pretty good job," said Tigers coach Brennan Compretta. "We gave up a few big plays, but they stepped up when it counted. They stiffened up real good when St. John was in the red zone.

"Our linebackers did a good job of swarming to the football. Kyle made a huge play, a big hit to stop a first down to seal the game."

In addition to Moran, Cory Thornton had 14 tackles and Trevor Adam added eleven.

The Tigers struck early following Reggie Calhoun's recovery of a St. John fumble on the opening kickoff, giving the Tigers great field position at the visitor's 39 yard line.

Corbin Blaize got the Tigers offense going with a 20-yard pass play to Brad Ladner inside the 20 yard line. But penalties, which plagued the Tigers most of the night, slowed the drive. Moran capped the drive for the Tigers to give the visitors an early 3-0 lead.

The Eagles took the lead back midway through the opening quarter as quarterback Paul Roberts connected with Lucas Lizana on a 16-yard pass for a score.

Antonio Hawkins gave the Tigers the lead again at 10-7 on a 10-yard run to close out the first quarter scoring at the 2:17 mark.

Lorenzo Lewis made a dazzling play as he took a screen pass from Blaize and zig zagged the field, avoiding would be tacklers for a 54-yard touchdown run with 11 minutes to play in the second quarter. Moran's second PAT kick of the night gave the Tigers a 17-7 lead, which held up at half-time.

Tyler Brush came in and connected with Steven Dauenhauer for a 46-yard pass play for a touchdown with just over ten minutes remaining in the game to give the Tigers a 24-14 lead.

On the night Blaize completed nine of 22 passes for 192 yards, a touchdown and one interception. Brush completed one of 8 passes.

Lewis had 4 receptions on the night for 96 yards and a touchdown. Dauenhauer had 3 receptions for 88 yards and a touchdown. Destin Thomas had one reception for 26 yards.

Hawkins rushed for 111 yards on twenty-two carries. Moran added 10 yards on two carries.

Moran averaged 39 yards on three punts and kicked a field goal.

"We've got a lot of work to do to get ready for Pearl River Central," Compretta said. "They are a heck of a football team. They have one of the best running backs in the state in Seth Hayden."

Penalties nearly killed us (15 penalties for 170 yards). We are going to have to do better than that next week."

The Tigers will be hosting Pearl River Central for homecoming on Friday night at J.D. McCullough Stadium.

Warriors crunch Rocks 31-7

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
STAFF WRITER

The fifth-ranked Oak Grove Warriors and the St. Stanislaus Rock-a-chaws locked horns on the high school gridiron and christened the Warrior's new 7,500 seat stadium on Friday night.

The Warrior's, who made the 2003 Class 5A state title game, ran away with the game 31-7 on the scoreboard.

Three plays on busted coverage put the Rocks in a hole they never recovered. The first was a 51-yard pass play on the second play from scrimmage which helped set up a 22-yard field goal in the first quarter, then a 75-yard scoring pass with less than a minute to play before half-time and finally a 77-yard pass play that was given up following a long drive by SSC to start the second half.

In the game, the Warriors racked up 403 yards of total offense with 346 yards coming through the air. The Rocks held the Warriors to just 57 yards rushing. SSC tallied 330 yards of offense with 205 coming through the air.

SSC head coach Casey Wittmann stated, "Depth was a problem for us this week. The same thing that we were able to do to St. John last week, wear them down with fresh legs, is what happened to us tonight. If we take out three plays where we had some coverage problems, we put the pressure on Oak Grove. We will hit the practice field hard this week to correct the mistakes that were made. We will be ready to play when we meet Long Beach next week."

The Warriors started the game on offense. On the second play from scrimmage, Oak Grove hit a streaking Ricky Smith for a 51-yard play. The bomb set up a 22-yard Taylor Lovitt field goal with 8:46 remaining in the first period.

The two teams traded possessions for the remainder of the first quarter and into the second quarter of action. Lovitt attempted a 54-yard field goal with 8:57 left in the first quarter. He missed short and wide left to keep the score at 3-0.

The Warriors converted on two consecutive pass plays covering a total of 61 yards. Terrell Walters capped off the drive with a 3-yard plunge with 2:20 left in the first half of action. The PAT was blocked by massive Rock defensive tackle J.C. Brignone to leave the score at 9-0.

The Rocks added a score prior to half-time when Lance Cuevas rolled out and hit a wide-open Floyd Dedeaux in the flats.

Morreale converted on the PAT and the score was 9-7 with 1:05 left in the first half.

Zack Harrington hit Walters for a 75-yard scoring pass with less than one minute remaining in the half to make the score at the break 17-7. Harrington carried the ball in for a 2-point conversion following the touchdown.

The Rocks opened the second half on offense with a 15-play drive that resulted in a 25-yard field goal attempt. The kick by Morreale was blocked and Oak Grove took over control of the ball.

On the third play of the drive, Harrington found Drew Ezell for a 77-yard score with 5:04 remaining in the third quarter. Lovitt made the score 24-7 with the PAT.

The two teams traded possessions before the Warriors took over. Oak Grove scored their final touchdown of the evening on a 9-yard scramble by Harrington with :19 left in the third quarter. Lovitt's PAT was good for a 32-7 lead.

The two teams traded their subs in and out for the remainder of the game.

SSC's Mike Cure and Oak Grove's Ricky Smith led their teams with 101 reception yards for the game. Cure had eight catches in the game while Smith had four receptions.

Defensively, the Rocks were led by Lee Klein and Jordan Ellis' 10 total tackles.

This week the Rocks (0-2) will travel to Long Beach to tangle with the Bearcats at Lance Lumpkin Field. Game time is set for 7:30p.m.

4th annual All-Sea Coast Echo team

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
STAFF WRITER

The Sea Coast Echo newspaper will again feature a All-Sea Coast Echo football team following the 2004 gridiron season. The honorees will consist of first-team and honorable mention selections chosen by the Sea Coast Echo football reporting staff from nominations sent in by the coaches of each team.

All players nominated will receive special certificates noting their accomplishment. In addition to the All-Sea Coast Echo team, the paper will present a Player of the Year on offense and defense.

Coaches should expect to receive their nomination packets for the All-Sea Coast Echo football team in the mail during the week of October 11th. The nomination packets will need to be returned to the paper no later than November 12th. As in the past, if a player is not nominated then he is not considered for post-season recognition.

Nationally-ranked PRCC bombs Itawamba 46-23

Quarterback Jimmy Oliver passed for a school record 478 yards Thursday to lead nationally-ranked and defending state champion Pearl River to a 46-23 wipe out over Itawamba to open the 2004 MACJC football season.

Oliver, a redshirt freshman from East Marion, completed 24 of 37 passes for a record 478 yards in his three quarters of play against the Indians; eclipsing Shane Tapper's seven-year-old mark of 455 yards against arch-rival Mississippi Gulf Coast in 1997.

"Jimmy's just a athlete and a smart quarterback," said third-year PRCC head coach Tim Hatten. "He sees the field extremely well and it showed out there tonight against Itawamba. And he's only going to get better...that was his first football game since he was in high school at East Marion in the 2002 season."

"It was a great way for him to make his debut and it was a great team effort by all of our guys."

Oliver connected with Josh Barnes of Hattiesburg High five times for a game-high 150 yards and two touchdowns, while NJCAA first-team preseason All-American Larry Brackins of Dothan, Ala. — the MACJC's leading receiver a year ago, hauled in three for 129 yards.

ICC punter Michael Gibson boomed one down field 53 yards on the Indians' second possession of the game and Brackins' six-yard return set things up at the visitors' 35. Three plays later, Oliver converted a third-and-three with a 38-yard completion to Brackins, then zipped a 16-yarder to James Hollingsworth of Hattiesburg High to the five.

From there, preseason All-American Bernard Smith of Lake Wales, Fla., took it for the score. Chris St. John of Oak Grove boot the PAT and PRCC led 7-0 with 6:04 left in the opening period.

Oliver connected with wide receiver Josh Barnes for eight yards on the last play of the opening period, then hooked up with the sophomore from Hattiesburg High two plays later for 41 yards down to the ICC 17.

Hollingsworth's ensuing seven-yard catch put things on the 10, then Oliver hit Jacob Garber for the TD with 12:53 left in the half. St. John's extra point made it 14-0.

ICC preseason All-American quarterback Ken Topps, a former Shannon star, answered the score by engineering an 11-play, 59-yard drive that stalled at the Wildcat 16 and place kicker Jay Roberts wound up booting a 33-yard field goal to put the Indians on the board with 8:29 left in the half.

Pearl River immediately retaliated. Starting at his own 20, Oliver hit Garber with back-to-back six and 22-yard completions, then kept for two straight snaps for 12 yards to move things to midfield. A roughing penalty on ICC pushed things to the Indians' 36, where Oliver then hit Brackins with a 32-yard completion to the two. That set the stage for Oliver's TD pass to Gentrelle Ware of Monroe, La., to make it 20-3 with 5:02 left in the half. St. John's extra point was blocked.

After ICC followed with a three-and-out, it took PRCC only six plays to pad its lead. Oliver converted a second-and-nine at his own 35 when he hit Brackins for 59 yards to the Indian six, then zipped to Barnes for the TD to pump PRCC lead to 26-3 with 1:56 left in the half. Oliver's two-point conversion pass fell incomplete.

The third quarter saw a scoring barrage with PRCC cashing in on three of its four possessions in the period to put up its final points of the night. The Wildcats pulled off an impressive seven-play, 70-yard drive to open the second half with Oliver connecting on three of five throws for 43 yards. Freshman running back Mike McClendon, Mississippi Class 4A rushing leader a year ago at Quitman High, capped the drive with back-to-back runs, the last a 23-yarder for the TD. St. John's PAT made it 33-3 with 11:30 left in the period.

ICC answered with its first touchdown of the night when Topps engineered a seven-play, 59-yard drive. Like Oliver, the sophomore connected on three of five throws in the drive for 44 yards. His last completion was to Charles Rainey for 23 yards to convert a third-and-eight at the Wildcat 38.

Quinton Meaders did the scoring honors with a 15-yard run with 8:39 left in the quarter. Roberts' PAT made it 33-10.

The Indians nailed Wildcat returner Brian Graham of Hollywood, Fla., at the 16 on the ensuing kickoff, but Oliver tossed two straight incompletions before he hit Hollingsworth with an 84-yard TD pass. St. John's PAT made it 39-10 with 8:08 left in the third.

ICC went three-and-out and Roberts booted a punt that sailed out of bounds 35 yards down field at the nine. Four plays later St. John's punt was blocked and bounded into the end zone where Indian line-backer Terrence Kelly recovered for the touchdown. Roberts' PAT made it 39-17 with 4:51 left in the period.

Pearl River answered with its final scoring drive when Oliver connected with Barnes on a second-and-10 for a 60-yard scoring pass. St. John's PAT ended the Wildcats' scoring with 1:56 left in the third.

Itawamba put together a 10-play, 56-yard drive to the Wildcat four on its ensuing possession before Topps threw incomplete on a fourth-and-four. Two series later, ICC ended the scoring with a seven-play, 61-yard drive. Running back Davious Gillespie got the call five straight downs and rambled for a combined 44 yards down to the 17 where freshman quarterback Matt Randle of Amory connected on back-to-back passes to Charles Rainey, the last a 13-yarder for the TD with 23 seconds left. Roberts' PAT made it 46-23.

Pearl River finished the game with 17 first downs to ICC's 15, while the Wildcats generated a whopping 546 offensive yards (478 pass, 68 rush) for the 11th-highest total in school history. Itawamba managed 261 yards (114 pass, 147 rush). ICC quarterbacks connected on 11 of 22 passes (no interceptions), while PRCC signal callers hit on 24 of 37 (no interceptions).

Pearl River returns to action next Thursday when East Mississippi visits for a 7 p.m. non-division contest.

PRCC football games to air live on world-wide Web

For the first time in school history, live radio broadcasts of Pearl River Community College football games this season can be heard on the world wide Web, via the PRCC web site.

"This is another first for Pearl River Community College," said Chuck Abadie, Director of Public Relations at PRCC. "Live radio broadcasts of sports events on the Web is something that professional sports teams and many four-year colleges have been doing for some time now. Because of our recent success in football, PRCC alumni who can't make it to the games can now tune in by going to the PRCC web site (www.prc.edu)."

Jason Baker of Picayune returns for his fourth season as the play-by-play voice of the Wildcats. Clay Sweet of Picayune provides the color commentary.

PRCC webmaster Ronn Hague and sophomore student Charlie Jordan of Poplarville, who is majoring in computer networking and computer programming, have spent the better part of this summer setting up the technology so PRCC games can be carried live on the Web.

"Through their hard work, many of our alumni who live outside of the PRCC district or out of state can now tune in and listen to the Wildcats," said Abadie.

Wildcat football games will continue to be broadcast live over four South Mississippi radio stations, including WFFF-FM (96.7) in Columbia, WBOX-FM (92.9) in Bogalusa, La., WRJW-AM (1380) in Picayune and WKNZ-FM (107.1) in Hattiesburg.

"PRCC was the first community college in Mississippi," said Abadie. "It was the first community college in Mississippi to win four state championships in the major sports in the same school year, the first community college to switch from the traditional year book to a year disk. And now we are the first to broadcast our games on the Web."

Sears store to open in old Walmart building this fall

BY JOHN WATERMAN
STAFF WRITER

This fall, Hancock County shoppers will have several new retail outlets to browse. Most of them will be located in the old Wal-Mart building on Highway 90 in Waveland. Sears is one of the many companies jumping in on the retail opportunities that the new shopping center has to offer.

Art Bond, who will manage and own the local Sears franchise store said that he was excited and happy to have the opportunity. He said that his store will make available most of Sears' major appliances, but would not feature a clothing or automotive section in the 9,000 square-foot store. Bond expects the store to be host a grand opening on Nov. 1.

Over the next few months, Bond and his employees will be working with Sears to get their local outlet up to Sears specifications.

He said that Sears contractors would come to town to help with the computer systems and display racks.

Bond said that several store owners and Wal-Mart had been negotiating with the county to cut a throughway to the Super Wal-Mart parking lot. He said that it would likely be resolved by early next year.

Bond is enthusiastic about the defunct Wal-Mart being converted into a viable commercial outlet. In addition to housing retail outlets, the building will serve as a base for Pearl River Community College's Hancock County facility, and will offer a number of college courses on-site.

"I think it's a fine concept," Bond said. "The Wal-Mart building is a big open area that you can subdivide."

The entire facility is scheduled to be open for business later this fall.

Zimmerman completes training

William Zimmerman, an employee for the city of Bay St. Louis, successfully completed the General Management component of the Mississippi Public Water System Management Training session held August 25, 2004 in Natchez, Mississippi. This intensive training session focused on key administrative and managerial practices required to successfully run a public water system.

The management training session was presented by Tommy Ricks, State Coordinator for Community Resource Group Inc.

CRG serves as the southern region for the national Rural Community Assistance Partnership (RCAP).

The training session provided an interactive learning environment for area water system decision makers that included instruction in administrative management practices, capacity development, and budget preparation.

With more than 1,100 community water systems operating in Mississippi, training programs sponsored by the Mississippi State Department of Health play a key role in keeping area water systems up to date on current business practices and state regulations.

Since 1998, board members of all rural (non-municipal) water systems serving fewer than 2,500 customers have been required to attend eight hours of management training within two years of being elected. Since that time, more than 4,000 water system professionals have successfully completed Mississippi board training sessions.

Community Resource Group Inc., is a multi-state rural development organization dedicated to helping people in the rural South build hometown futures through long-term solutions to community wide problems for nearly 30 years.

For additional information on future Mississippi Public Water System Management Training sessions contact CRG's Mississippi state office at (866) 299-7737.

Christman celebrate 50th

Mary Jane and Ralph Christman celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on September 4th. Mary Jane was the former Mary Jane Green from Bay St. Louis and Ralph was originally from New Orleans. The couple has recently moved from New Orleans to Pass Christian.

Mary Jane and Ralph returned to the scene of their wedding for their fiftieth celebration. On September 4, 1954 they were married in Our Lady of the Gulf church and held their reception at 418 S. Beach Boulevard, the Green Family home. Family and friends joined them this past Labor Day weekend for Mass at Our Lady of the Gulf followed by a cocktail party at the Green Family home. Their seven children were honored to host the event and were joined by their spouses: Morris and Charlotte Foster of Houston, Texas; Chris and Julie Christman of Daphne, Alabama; John and Lucienne Christman of New Orleans; Greg Christman of Houston, Texas; John and Janie Boling of Hurst, Texas; Preston and Wendy Christman of New Orleans; and Paul and Trish Christman of Silver Springs, Maryland. Also attending were the couple's 16-1/2 grandchildren.

Not only was the Green Family home the venue for this celebration and the original wedding reception but it was also the site in 1939 for the 50th anniversary party of Mary Jane's paternal grandparents, John and Mary Jane Green.

Waveland expecting a budget shortfall

BY BENNIE SHALL-BETTER
Staff Writer

The City of Waveland will hold a public hearing for comments on their proposed budget for the 2004/2005 fiscal year on Tuesday, September 7 at 6 p.m. at the City Hall Annex on Coleman Ave. The regular aldermen's workshop and meeting will follow.

Preliminary figures indicate a General Fund budget of $10,373,565, up from the 2003/2004 fiscal year total of $6,323,141. The increase in figures directly reflect expected income from grants and matching loan funds of around $5 million, which will be used for a number of projects including the refurbishing of Coleman Ave., Old Spanish Trail, Nicholson Ave. and lighting for Hwy. 90 and 603. Actual expenditures would amount to a little over $5 million, said city secretary Lisa Planchard.

The Utility Fund, with an ending total of $17,431,977, likewise reflects expected revenues from grants and matching loan funds of around $11.4 million, which, when received, would be used for a major rehabilitation of the city sewer system, sewer extensions, water projects and more.

Don't let the hefty balance in the utility fund fool you, however. City officials say they will be about $800,000 dollars short in covering the expenses for providing city utilities to their approximately 3,000 customers. The shortfall will force aldermen to either find ways to cut an already tight budget or consider the more likely scenario of raising user fees for utility customers. Preliminary figures do not reflect any possible utility rate hikes.

City auditors have long advised the city to consider hikes both in millage and in utility rates, said Mayor Tommy Longo at Thursday's budget workshop. Aldermen will discuss options at Tuesday's meeting and are likely to make a decision on new usage rates at that time.

The city is expected to maintain a fairly healthy cash reserve for the next fiscal year some where between $400,000 and $800,000. All city employees will receive merit raises, with upper echelon employees receiving only cost of living raises. Elected officials will receive no pay raises.

Apartment complex water concerns residents; testing underway

BY JOHN WATERMAN
STAFF WRITER

Residents of Pelican Pointe Apartments who glanced at their swimming pool early Wednesday morning had a rude awakening. The pool was filled with dirty water, and a black, oily substance.

Robert Griffin, a resident of Pelican Pointe Apartments, said that the water in entire apartment complex had been an unnaturally dark brown since he had moved there in June. He said that he had mentioned the matter to management on several occasions, and that many other residents had experienced the same problem.

The management of Pelican Pointe Apartments said they had not heard of any complaints from residents, and declined further comment.

Woody Stieffel, city engineer, said that the discoloration did not come from the city's water system.

"The piping system in Pelican Pointe is quite old. We don't know what the pool looked like before it started filling up with water. We have plastic water mains in that area. Plastic water piping does not emit any kind of (additional) coloration to the water."

Stieffel suggested that the water in the pool may have looked darker because there was so much of it, or that residual dirty water had been in Pelican Pointe's lines.

Stieffel said the oily substance in the pool was a mystery to him.

"We took some samples, and there's two concerns we had with the water. We don't know what the oily looking substance on top of the water was."

Stieffel said the substance looked and smelled like it had a petroleum base. It is currently undergoing tests to determine exactly what it is.

The water itself came from a hose on the premises. Stieffel said it was safe to drink.

"We took tests on the spot," Stieffel said. "The water tested for chlorine, and small amounts of iron was found, which is normal, and zero content of manganese."

Stieffel said he drank a cup of the water on the spot to demonstrate that it was safe and drinkable.

"I drank the water, and I'm still living today," he said.

Stieffel was not sure why the water was so dark in color. He said that a biological pigment called tannin gave Bay St. Louis water a slight tint, but it was not as pronounced as the water in Pelican Pointe's pool.

On many occasions, Stieffel said, the city's water engineers would go to people's homes and test the water at their request. If the water tests positive for chlorine, he said, it is safe to drink.

"We've tried various ways to minimize the color (in the city's water). It comes from the mineral content, and is not dangerous."

Stieffel mentioned other ways to eliminate the water's coloration, and although they are very effective, he said they both came with a large price tag.

"The city has been exploring other expensive ways of treating water," Stieffel said. "One is called ozonation, which is process of treating water with ozone. It treats water, and eliminates the color. The second treatment is called reverse osmosis, which is the equivalent of distilling water."

Stieffel said that both methods were equally effective in making the water clear, but carried price tags of several million dollars apiece.

Dirty stuff

The swimming pool at Pelican Pointe Apartments was closed Thursday morning when a mysterious black sludge was found floating in unusually dirty water. Also, Robert Griffin, below, a resident of Pelican Pointe holds up a water filtration device. Griffin said that dirty water had been came out of his sink for several months. ## Theft, stolen vehicle leads to arrests

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
PUBLISHER EMERITUS

Waveland Police received a call from Wal-Mart Wednesday morning, reporting two suspects in the parking lot trying to get customers to give them money. A description of the vehicle was given which was later located. A license check revealed it had been stolen in Georgia, according to Waveland Police Chief Jimmy Varnell.

"Following the call from Wal-Mart, Officer Michael Prendergast was patrolling the area searching for the vehicle when he spotted it in the Choctaw Plaza Parking Lot. A license check was run and it came back as being stolen," Varnell's report said.

"Arrested were; Donald Gouglas Bass, 43, and Tammy Lynn Bass, 33, both of Farmville, GA. Both subjects in the vehicle were entered on the National Crime Information Center as being wanted by the Twiggs County Georgia Sheriff's Department," Varnell added.

Both were lodged in the Hancock County Criminal Justice Facility. Assisting Michael Prendergast in making the arrests were, Officers Theresa Beeson and Lt. Mike Prendergast, according to Varnell.

In an unrelated matter, Waveland police received a report from a CSX employee on August 27, who stated a company credit card had been stolen from his vehicle while it was being worked on at J&S Equipment in Waveland, Varnell reported.

Varnell continued, "An investigation revealed the credit card had been used at Murphy Oil in Waveland on August 27 and 28, which led to the arrest of Jonathan Dewayne Bruhl of 2212 Tenth St., Bay St. Louis."

Bruhl is charged with two counts of fraud to obtain goods and he was placed in the Hancock County Criminal Justice Facility in lieu of a $5,000 bond. Bruhl has an initial appearance scheduled on September 9 in Waveland Municipal Court, Varnell's report stated.

Arresting office was Mac Cowand and Criminal investigator in charge of the investigation is Detective Howard Parker.

Burglar nabbed by Waveland PD

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
Publisher Emeritus

A Waveland resident was arrested Wednesday night, after a homeowner reported two safes with cash were stolen, Police Chief Jimmy Varnell reports.

"Police were called by the homeowner in the area of Pine Ridge Drive, who gave a description of the vehicle the suspect was driving. Two safes were missing with approximately $3,000 in them," Varnell's report said.

Varnell continued, "A short time later police stopped the suspect's vehicle. Daniel Nathan Threet, 23, 4147 Niagra St., Waveland was arrested and charged with one count of burglary of a residence. He was placed in the Hancock County Criminal Justice Facility under a $10,000 bond."

Further investigation led to the recovery of the two safes in a wooded area near the suspect's residence. Criminal Investigator Laura Stepro is in charge of the investigation. Arresting officer was Eddie Peterson with assistance from Sgt. Brent Anderson, Varnell's report said.

Traffic stop leads to drug charges

BY ELLIS C. CUEVAS
Publisher Emeritus

Early Thursday morning, Waveland Officer Ronald Storey conducted a traffic stop on a vehicle for one operating headlight. Further investigation led to the discover of marijuana and cocaine, according to Waveland Police Chief Jimmy Varnell.

"Darin Patrick Hutchinson, 41, of Carriere, was arrested and charged with possession of a controlled substance (cocaine), possession of marijuana while operating a vehicle, no proof of liability insurance, and improper equipment," Varnell's reported said.

Hutchinson was placed in the Hancock County Criminal Justice Facility under a $7,100 bond. His initial court appearance is scheduled for October 7, Varnell reported.

Officer Storey was assisted by Sgt. Brent Anderson in making the arrest.

In an unrelated case, On August 31, Walmart notified Waveland Police a suspect was trying to break into vehicles in the store's parking lot. Three other witnesses were also located by the reporting officer who stated they observed a suspect attempting to break into vehicles, Varnell's report said.

Varnell continued, "Jonathan William Boswell, 19, of Hattiesburg, was arrested and charged with two counts of attempted burglary of a vehicle, possession of Hydrocodone (scheduled 3) and possession of xanax, (scheduled 4) narcotics. Boswell was placed in the Hancock County Criminal Justice Facility under a $11,000 bond with an initial court appearance set for September 9."

A search of the suspect's vehicle revealed the tools the witness stated they saw the suspect use to attempt to get into the vehicles, according to police.

Making the arrest was Officer Mac Cowand, who was assisted by Officers Jill Barnell and Henry Develle. Detective Howard Parker is in charge of the investigation.

The roar of the lion, the snarl of the cat

Views From a Front Porch

by Paul Estronza
La Violette

laviolette@mail.datasync.com
www.annabellepublishing.com

I have spoken before of the many amazing (to me) attributes of Holly, our black cat; his remarkable agility to climb great heights and leap large spaces, the complete darkness of his blackness, his ethereally albinism and his complete disdain of worldly contacts except those of his own choosing.

However, I have found that Holly is not as perfect as I perhaps wish. Shortly after we got Holly, I found that his "meow" is defective. The only noise I hear from him is a mixture of sound that resembles the squeak of a distant screen door and the noise made by someone in the next office turning in their swivel chair. If a "meow" is there, it's not what one would expect. What I hear comes out as a rather startling:

Mew!

Now I know that this may not seem important. But it does bother me. Stella, on the other hand, thinks the diminutive squeak that Holly makes is cute.

She claims that I am making a big to do over nothing and has pointed out to me a number of things I should be tending to besides Holly's bark, finding out what that shudder is when the car goes over seventy-five, my not putting the deodorant back in the center of the bathroom counter after I use it, etc...

However, I did notice her shudder early last Sunday morning when Holly walked in the room at three o'clock. Holly announced his presence with his usual:

Mew!

Now if it was daylight and we were outside in the open air, it would have been different. Outside, what with the wind, the sounds of the birds, even the noise of growing grass, we would have heard nothing. But in the early morning stillness of our bedroom, Holly's Mew! was clearly audible.

Let me point out that at night, Holly normally stays in the kitchen, patrolling that part of the house that in these hours is completely his to rule. However, there are times he wanders out to join Stella and I in our bed-

Dreamland zinnias produce enormous flowers reaching close to 4 inches wide that almost resemble those on a homecoming mum. The bright, colorful flowers are produced on short, stocky plants that reach just 18 inches tall.

The recent cooler weather, coupled with fresh crops of zinnias, marigolds and others arriving at garden centers, is making it fun to get back out in the yard and do a little digging.

Cool summer makes great garden weather

I don't know if it has happened before in my lifetime. If it has, I don't remember, and I am sure it never happened during my brief football career. I am talking about the weather.

I have always been a proponent of planting some flowers in August, but with the recent weather, it should be a no-brainer. The weather, coupled with fresh crops of zinnias, marigolds and others arriving at your garden center, is making it fun to get back out in the yard and do a little digging.

It's been incredible to see how fast my new Dreamland zinnias have started to grow and bloom. They are already making a landscape impact.

When I say landscape, the first zinnia that comes to mind is the Dreamland. The Dreamland zinnia has been used all over the campus of Mississippi State University in Starkville in your child to develop a sense of empathy towards all other living creatures, and can provide companionship and wonderful play opportunities. I vividly recall "Candy", the little mixed-breed dog my family owned when I was a child. She shared my secrets, obliged my fledgling "dog trainer" efforts by learning all sorts of silly tricks, and endured countless play sessions wearing doll clothes!

Choosing an appropriate pet for a child requires some thought. Take some time to research all the different kinds of animals that might be suitable for your child and your family. Dogs and cats are the obvious choices, but neither one may be right for your family's lifestyle. Many small mammals can be good pets for kids. I really like guinea pigs, they are larger and sturdier than hamsters, gerbils or mice, tend to be a bit calmer, and seem to enjoy handling when treated gently. Birds like parakeets, lovebirds, and cockatiels are charming, interactive pets, particularly if they have been hand-raised. They have the added bonus of being able to talk, too! Most of us don't consider reptiles to be especially "cuddly", but they can be surprisingly responsive, and might be a good choice

Ten free live oak trees to all who join Arbor Day Foundation

THE SEA COAST ECHO
 Ten free live oak trees will be given to each person who joins The National Arbor Day Foundation during September 2004.

The free trees are part of the nonprofit Foundation's Trees for America campaign.

"These magnificent wide-spreading trees will be picturesque additions to your landscape," John Rosenow, the Foundation's president, said.

"They were selected because of the shade and special beauty they will give your home. Live oaks grow rapidly when young and may live to be centuries old."

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between October 15 and December 10 with enclosed planting instructions.

The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

Members also receive a subscription to the Foundation's colorful bimonthly publication, Arbor Day, and The Tree

Book with information about tree planting and care.

To receive the free trees, send a $10 membership contribution to TEN LIVE OAKS, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, by September 30, 2004. Or join online at arborday.org.

N.I.E. Newspapers In Education

The Sea Coast Echo is participating in the Newspaper in Education Program for the 2004-2005 School year. Sponsors are needed to help provide newspapers for classroom use. During the 2003-2004 school year, all area schools participated in the NIE Program.

You can help by sponsoring a specific teacher(s) at one or more of our schools.

Sponsorships are $150 per class per year.

N.I.E. and YOU make it possible to put our local newspaper in the classrooms to put students in touch with what is happening in their community. Thanks to you, N.I.E. is possible!

N.I.E. Sponsors will be recognized several times in The Sea Coast Echo.

The Sea Coast Echo

124 Court Street, Bay St. Louis
 For further information contact Rita Breun, Circulation Manager at 228-467-5474

Newspapers In Education is a program in which newspapers supplement traditional teaching materials in the classroom. N.I.E. programs are provided to local schools through paid sponsorship programs.

Newspapers In Education programs teach with the newspaper. Students learn to become critical thinkers through reading, analyzing and discussing newspaper stories and editorials. They use the knowledge they gain to engage in conversations with peers and family members.

If you would like to be an NIE SPONSOR or if you are a teacher and would like to use the Echo's N.I.E. program in your classroom you may contact RITA BREUN, N.I.E. coordinator at THE SEA COAST ECHO 467-5474.

Elliott wins state checkers championship

Josh Elliott of Bay St. Louis wins big at "The Mississippi State Open Checkers Championship" held at the International Checker Hall of Fame in Petal Mississippi. Elliott won the State Championship - Youth Division. Elliott who won 1st place this year also won 1st Place last year and came in 2nd in the State the year before that.

Elliott is the son of Laura and Ree Elliott of Bay St. Louis and a freshman at Bay High School. He is a member of the 9th grade Bay High Football Team. He is an Honor Roll student and a member of the "BETA CLUB". He is also a recipient of the "UNITED STATES ACHIEVEMENT ACADEMY NATIONAL AWARD" - 2003/2004 school year.

The State Tournament is held every year during the memorial day weekend. The tournament is so old that no one knows just when it was started but for the last three decades it has been held at the International Checker Hall of fame in Petal Mississippi. The Hall is 20,000 square feet and has a museum and 7 story tall tower. It has been listed in Ripley's BELIEVE IT OR NOT for it's giant 16' by 16' checkerboard.

Josh Elliott

Mississippi's all time Checker Champion Charles Walker (38 out of 49 years Champion) hosted the tournament.

Walker said, "Elliott is doing very well for his age." He would love to see more children getting involved with checkers and chess because it helps them develop their minds and will also help them in their studies in school.

According to Walker the ability to win at checkers requires a cool, clear analytical mind. He says "In chess, one can retreat. But checkers is forward moving, more aggressive. It is a game of force when played all the way through."

For information about the Tournament call the ICHF at (601)-582-7090.

BAY CRAFTS, 107 NORTH BEACH BLVD: "Sculpting takes on a whole new meaning in the capable hands of artist Talle Johnson" (Farrah Austin, Southern Living).

Talle is the director of Bay Clay Studio, the product of an active art partnership with the City of Bay St. Louis. He is also an award winning potter and well respected educator often published in Southern Living and recently featured in Art Gulf Coast.

Talle believes that "art is about human involvement" which gives his work a quality sought after by collectors far and wide.

Come meet the man himself and view his impressive collection of pottery at Bay Crafts, 107 N. Beach Blvd.

ANTIQUES AND THINGS, 138 MAIN STREET: Celebrating its second anniversary in Old Town, Antiques and Things offers the casual shopper an eclectic array of antiques, collectibles, gifts and good scents. The ten room building once housed the well remembered and beloved "Bobby Anne Bakery". Now the spaces are filled with items designed to delight and ignite the shoppers' creative urges to adorn their cottages, castles, or themselves with charming and unique furnishings, accessories, artwork, pottery, and jewelry.

Gourmet food items have been added to the mix of items featured for sale in the newest section of the store, "Old Town General Store". A delectable sampling will be offered to Second Saturday guests, demonstrating that "easy entertaining with a creative flair" is truly an art unto itself.

Decorative items and furnishings are offered by

Antiques and Things, The Checkered Cupboard, and the Pembre-Broscke Collection. Items presently for sale in the various areas of the store are displayed in vignettes, or settings, that allow the shopper to visualize how to intergrate old and new in a tasteful, pleasant, and comfortable manner.

Matt Steadman, Marsh End Pottery; Charles Bohn, Shady Side Pottery; and Wanda Bullock, Clay Things are featured as the contributing potters at Antique and Things. Their works include both utilitarian pottery and stoneware pieces, as well as award winning art pottery pieces.

room. The problem when he does this is that at these times he is wide-awake and wants amusement and we are fast asleep and don't. So at night, the kitchen door is usually closed tight and Holly wandering is limited.

Sunday, the door had not been well secured and Holly, awake and bored, had come to call. First the Mew! Then silence. Both Stella and I heard it and lay there waiting. Nothing happened.

Then just before we began falling back asleep, there was a plump of a body landing on the bed, then a black form leaping from one of our bodies to the other and then nothing.

"Paul! Get up and get him!" "You get him!"

There was long stretch of silence. Then a Mew! beside my side of the bed. As I lunged to grab him, Holly leapt again onto the bed, did his body-to-body jump, and then tried to leap off again.

Holly was quick, but not quick enough. Stella grabbed him before he could leap down, and I felt the bed shift as she got up. Then, after a moment, I heard in the distance, the kitchen door slam shut and then felt the bed shift again as Stella returned. There was a momentary turning and shifting of covers on both our parts and then a return to quiet.

In this silence, I slipped into a soft, seamless sleep. There was some passage of time and then I found myself being drawn back a rather delightful dream into being again half awake. It took a second to sense what had awoken me. There was, I realized, a light weight on my leg. Not actually on my leg, beside it. It was outside the covers, in the space between Stella and me. Stella had not checked the other kitchen door.

I listened. There was no Mew! this time, but then there was not really complete silence, either. I found that I could feel more than hear a low, barely audible, purr. I lay there waiting. Nothing more happened. Just the weight against my leg and the low purr. I realized that I could sleep with that and relaxing, let myself slip back to the dreams I had left a few moments earlier.

It's not often one gets to sleep with a lion.

Garden -- stay cool

recent years to add bold color for visitors and students. These zinnias produce enormous flowers reaching close to 4 inches wide that almost resemble those on a homecoming mum. The bright, colorful flowers are produced on short, stocky plants that reach just 18 inches tall, so they need no staking and will not fall over.

Many of you may be thinking that zinnias get leaf-spotting diseases. This is a problem with some varieties, but if you look at the foliage of the Dreamland zinnias, you will quickly notice there is hardly any leaf spotting disease. This makes the series an environmentally friendly performer in Southern landscapes. Dreamland zinnias, with their bright, colorful, dahlia-like blossoms, look good grown as a mixture or in single colors. On campus, they've had mixes planted with elephant ears to give a tropical look.

When you consider that the colors of fall are oranges, yellows and reds, then the marigold may be the ideal plant. They are loaded with bold colors and bold flowers that range in size from a quarter to a tennis ball. While typically thought of as spring flowers, they are ideal for fall.

Large-flowered, compact varieties like Antigua, Voyager and Discovery excel in the landscape, as do the slightly larger Inca and Marvel. The smaller, multi-colored, Safari and Bonanza are also knockout performers.

Whether you want

Dreamland zinnias or marigolds, prepare your beds by incorporating 3 to 4 inches of organic matter and 2 pounds of a slow-release, 12-6-6 fertilizer per 100 square feet of bed space. Direct-seed or set out transplants that have little to no color showing.

Thin the seedlings to proper spacing to allow for the vigorous growth that is about to occur. Mulch when the seedlings are large enough or after setting out transplants. Side-dress the young plants in six to eight weeks with light applications of the fertilizer.

Pets

for a child with allergies. Even an aquarium full of fish can provide a child with living things to care for and learn about.

When considering any pet, it's important to be realistic about the amount of time your family can devote to an animal. Puppies are so cute, but an incredible amount of time, care, and training is needed for them to become a mature, well-mannered family pet. Be sure you understand and can accommodate the specific housing, diet, and needs of any animal you choose. It's cruel to keep an animal confined in inadequate, poorly maintained surroundings, and feeding an improper diet will eventually lead to health problems or even premature death of your pet. Take time to talk with your child about the importance of providing proper, daily care for a pet, but a child should never be solely responsible for any animal's care. Don't let a pet suffer because your child forgot to feed it! Allowing your pet to reproduce simply so your child can experience the "miracle of birth" is unnecessary and irresponsible. Please, have your dog or cat "fixed", they will make better family pets and won't contribute to pet overpopulation. (Control is easily achieved by keeping only one or same sex. Surgical altering of pets is primarily limited to dogs and cats, some veterinarians will also neuter rabbits and ferrets.)

I am grateful my own parents always allowed and encouraged me to have a variety of pets as I grew up. My interest in animals, and love for them, has become an important facet of my adult life. When we learn to have interest and compassion towards all living things, I believe we become better human beings.

Registration deadline is September 17 for October ACT Test

College-bound high school students can take the ACT Assessment on October 23, 2004, the next national test date. The deadline for postmark registration is September 17. The late registration deadline is October 1 (an additional $15 fee is required for late registration). Students can get registration materials from their guidance counselor or they can register online at www.actstudent.org.

ACT scores are accepted by virtually all colleges in the nation, including all Ivy League schools. The exam is administered in all 50 states. Students can find the closest testing location closest by searching on ACT's website.

Some students perform better on the ACT because it is based on achievement, not aptitude. The ACT exam includes four parts: English, reading, mathematics and science. It takes three hours to complete. The test fee is $29. Free sample tests are available from high school counselors and sample questions can be found on ACT's website, which also offers inexpensive practice tests.

Beginning in February, 2005, an optional writing test will be added to the ACT Assessment. Since many colleges will not require a writing score, students will only have to take the writing test if their college requires it. Otherwise, they may opt for the regular ACT Assessment without the writing test. Students who plan to start college in the fall of 2006 should check with prospective colleges to find out if a writing score is required.

Wicks included in The National Dean's List®

Jeri P. Wicks of Bay St. Louis is included in the 27th annual Edition of The National Dean's List. Published by Educational Communications, Inc., of Austin, Texas, is the largest recognition program and publication in the nation honoring high achieving college students. Ms. Wicks is currently in her Jr. year at USM Gulf Park in Long Beach.

Students are selected for the honor by their college deans, registrars, honor society advisors or leaders of community and civic organizations in which they have participated as college students. Students must be on their school's "Dean's List", in the top 10% of their class or have earned a similar honor. Only 1/2 of 1% of American college students receive this honor. Jeri is currently employed in the Litigation Dept. of Southern Title Co.

Dean's List students may also compete for over $50,000 in scholarship awards. To learn more about The National Dean's List, please visit www.thenationaldeanslist.com.

Advertising is an investment in the success of your business. Every business has some kind of competition, either within the town, nearby city or from mail order firms. Your potential customers are being courted by your competitors. If you do not invite those customers to do business with you, they are likely to forget you and buy elsewhere. It is not uncommon for consumers to switch their trading from one store to another. Advertising helps to keep old customers and equally as important, make new ones.

Our community is constantly growing which means that potential customers are moving into the market area all the time. Advertising gives these newcomers a reason to visit your store.

Most businesses budget for their advertising expenses just as they do for other necessities such as rent, phones, etc. Smart business people realize that advertising is imperative to keep their business growing.

Another reason to advertise is that advertising is news! You profit by telling our readers what is new in your store. Through advertising, you can let a wide audience know the product lines you carry, the quality of your merchandise, the completeness of your service and the character of your store.

If you have something to sell, then you have something to advertise. When you have nothing to advertise, you are out of business. Advertising is designed to build your business and works best when it is repeated regularly. Consistent advertising pays off!

Now that you know some of the reasons to advertise, you're probably wondering how you can advertise most effectively. Surveys show that ads in local newspapers have more impact than in any other medium. The Sea Coast Echo goes into the majority of the homes in Hancock County. The Sea Coast Echo is full of interesting reading, it is a part of our community. People like to read about people and The Sea Coast Echo is full of pictures and stories about local people. The most important reason to advertise in The Sea Coast Echo is that our readers are your customers.

If you're looking for the best advertising value for your money, then you should contact the advertising department at The Sea Coast Echo. One of our advertising representatives will be happy to discuss the many advertising options offered by The Sea Coast Echo. For more information you may call 467-5474, Monday through Friday 8am to 5pm, or stop by our office at 124 Court Street, Bay St. Louis.

Since 1892, The Sea Coast Echo is proud to be a part of your community.

Receiving God's Strength

Where, or from whom do we receive our strength? The Bible has a clear answer to this question: I can do all things in Him who strengthens me (Philippians 4:12); God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble (Psalm 46:1); and, the Lord will give strength to His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace (Psalm 20:11). Tapping into this marvelous resource of God's strength is as natural as life itself, and accepting our human weaknesses and frailties is essential, so that we can become more trusting of our Heavenly Father. Of course, we are expected to always do our very best, and to be a person of love, compassion, and mercy. Also, a good prayer is necessary for a more serene life, and in turn improves our relationship with our Lord. Building our strength and trusting in God does not mean that things will always turn out the way we think they should, or even to our own liking; it simply means accepting God's will for our lives, and believing that our Lord knows what is best for us at all times. And although accepting God's will is not always easy, it is necessary in order to be His followers and to receive His strength and stability in our lives.

The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in Him, and I am helped...
K.J.V. Psalm 28:7

God heals and gives life through us

For a man in his mid-seventies, Wayne Edsall was amazingly active, pursuing his passion of rebuilding, renovating and flying antique airplanes. His world could not have been more pleasing to him, reaching from the nuts and bolts of overhauled airframes and greasy airplane engines to the wild and wondrous atmosphere of the wide blue yonder.

Open-cockpit biplanes were Edsall's special thing above and beyond all the other antique planes which he loved and venerated. As all other pilots know, Wayne realized through first-hand experience that flying old planes is far more intimate than piloting modern planes which are virtually equipped with the technology to fly themselves.

After each week of hard but loving work on restoring antique planes, Wayne and his pilot buddies celebrated Saturdays by flying to little towns around Montana to have breakfast and to visit and enjoy the many awesome beauties of their native state.

Suddenly, his wonderful world of aircraft was shattered and his wonderland of quiet retirement came to a screeching halt when he suffered a severe stroke which left him totally helpless, unable to move around, speak, spell or read. He was a child again.

With a chilling prognosis, doctors told Wayne's family that they should expect he would one day be able to tie his own shoes, maybe mow the lawn, watch TV and play checkers. This was certainly clipping the wings of a high-flying bird.

"He didn't recognize the alphabet. He was wrecked," Susan Edsall tells in her book, Into the Blue: A Father's Flight and a Daughter's Return.

"And they told him that he would never fly again. That was absolutely unacceptable."

Completely shocked and saddened by the terrible news, Susan and Sharon could not imagine their father living without being able to fly a plane. They took matters into their own hands when doctors and speech therapists refused to heed their cries for more help.

Despite living in Vermont and North Carolina, they took turns alternating two-week shifts with their father in Bozeman, Montana. Using materials aimed at 3-year-olds, they made more than 7,000 flash cards which they employed relentlessly with their dad seven days a week for more than 100 consecutive days.

Wayne Edsall's routine was mornings spent being drilled on words and numbers. Sharon and Susan then changed the focus, spending afternoons running errands to get their father interacting with society. Evenings were devoted to word games to keep his mind working. This same routine turned over day after day for over 100 days.

"I was about 7 or 8 years old when they started teaching me," Wayne observed. "If it hadn't been for the girls, or Marcia, their mom, that's where I would be."

Actually, that is not quite accurate, for Wayne did not recognize even the alphabet after his stroke. That would place him equivalently as young as 2 or 3 years old.

Almost miraculously, the love and dogged determination of Susan and Sharon bore fruit less than three months after their father's stroke. Contrary to all the predictions of the medical experts, Wayne flew his own plane again.

With somewhat baby steps for the first year, he had to fly with another pilot, since his pilot's license had been automatically revoked due to his medical condition. He had to reapply to the Federal Aviation Administration, then await the verdict.

For six months, he and his family waited with bated breath for the decision of the FAA. Finally, they all exhaled with unbounded joy when they opened the FAA's letter and saw that Wayne's license had been reinstated.

At long last, the Edsall family was liberated from their frustrations with the medical community over the amount of time to be expended and the quality of strategies to be implemented toward the rehabilitation of Wayne Edsall. Their exalted level of love and their sheer determination are a permanent warning to the jaded purveyors of medicine.

This overwhelmingly powerful story of happiness, tragedy, love and determination is a wakeup call not just for those members of the medical community who are lukewarm in dedication and lackadaisical in therapy, but for all of us at large. Even in the darkest hour of any situation, loving determination built on faith in God and each other always wins.

To be sure, professionals of the medical community have a distinct place in our lives. Still, we can become stymied, short-changed and discouraged from faith healing, physical therapy and mental therapy by too strong a reliance on medicine and its purveyors.

The power of mind over matter is nothing new at all. The only thing new is the Edsall family's living application of this reality to the tragic illness of their father.

As a matter of fact, most of us are capable of the same type of application of mind over matter, whether we call it faith healing, physical therapy, mental therapy or the power of prayer.

Preferably, we will not use the "either/or" principle, but rather the "both/and" principle of inclusion, of holism. Why rely just on the power of prayer, of faith, of physical therapy or of mental therapy, when we can knock the ball out of the park almost every time by combining all of these as complements to each other?

Sparkling as a beacon in the surrounding darkness, the Edsall family saga tells us insistently that, no matter how sick, no matter how debilitated, no matter how afflicted or depressed a person may be, partial or complete healing is seldom out of the question.

Happily, our human spirit cannot be limited by medical prognosis and cannot be dashed by physical afflictions. We have no limits but the healing of Divine Providence.

The gifts of the Spirit

SCRIPTURE SAYS
BY ED YOUNG

Does the church of God operate today without the gifts of the Spirit? For the most part the answer is, yes. Many denominations believe that those gifts were for the first century believers. The gifts of healing, casting out devils, discernment of spirits or not for the church of Christ to use today.

This writer wonders when did Satan disarm his demons and change his tactics? He didn't!

However, if you don't believe that the gifts of the Spirit should be used to fight against the powers of darkness; naturally you will not have them as a weapon in your arsenal.

Grant it, many times the gifts have been misused. Well, meaning believers tried to use a certain gift that was not given to them by Jesus.

Foolish and spiritual shallowness is often the case.

Nevertheless, many missionaries on the field today know for a fact; these gifts are being used today. The have no problem believing and using them for the glory of God. It's unfortunate that many churches try to explain this away. Why?

So when churches refuse to use the scriptures, the Holy Spirit seeks out those who will. 1 Cor. 12: 4, 10.

Your commitment to Christ

In today's world men and women and boys and girls are committed to many different things. A husband may be committed to making a go of farming. A wife may be committed to a career in advertising. Another fellow may be committed to the cause of a balanced federal budget. A young lady may be committed to the cause of women's rights. A teenage boy may be committed to playing football. The gal he admires may be committed to the cheerleading squad. There are all varieties, types and levels of commitment. There is however one commitment every person, young and old, should have. It is commitment to Jesus Christ the Son of God. Commitments to athletics, to schooling and to your work will carry you to certain levels of achievement in this world. Commitment to Jesus Christ will not only bear you up under the burdens of this life, it will carry you into the life to come. That's far more important. Long ago a Roman jailer feared for his life because he thought all his prisoners escaped. He fell down before the apostle Paul and Paul's companion, Silas, and cried, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" "And they said, 'Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you shall be saved, you and your household'" (Acts 16:31). That jailer's commitment to Christ carried him through an immediate crisis. It also led him into the glorious presence of God in heaven. That's what commitment to Christ does. It makes the pains of this life tolerable. More importantly, it opens the gates of Heaven. Have you committed your life to Christ? Have you confessed Jesus Christ as the Lord over your life?

Hancock educators complete internships

the sea coast echo
During the months of June and July 2004 sixteen Hancock School District teachers committed two weeks of their summer for the Teacher Internship program designed to prepare educators to meet the needs of students and business/industry through "hands-on" activities in the workplace. In return for 80 hours of hard work, teachers received 8 Continuing Education Units through MS Gulf Coast Community College. The teachers that participated in the third year of this program and their business/industry placement were:

Express
William Chimento - Bay St. Louis Police Department
Mary Enders - The Sea Coast Echo
Natalie Entriiken - WLOX Television
Kathy Hodge - Dunbar Village Nursing Facility
Greg Ladner - Coast Electric Power Association
Ladonna Ladner - Hancock Library System
Joshua Lindsey - Hancock Chamber of Commerce
Chastity Peterson - Dunbar Village Nursing Facility
Rhonda Sones - Mississippi Welcome Center in Hancock County
Vanessa Strahan - University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg
Jennifer Thrasher - Lynn Meadows Discovery Center
Kelley Williams - Hancock County Building Inspector's Office.

Enrollment at PRCC reaches record levels

Pearl River Community College officials announced last week that the 2004 fall semester enrollment is the largest in the school's 94-year history.

Through the end of registration Thursday, fall enrollment is up 265 students, including some 130 full-time students, to a total of 4,156 students on both the Poplarville and Hattiesburg campuses. That's a 6.5 percent increase over fall enrollment in 2003.

"I think we can attribute our growth to a number of factors," said PRCC President William Lewis. "It's been demonstrated that we live in a growth area of the state. And, our faculty and staff continue to work diligently on making known the low cost, quality educational opportunities that are available at our community college."

"We believe that word is getting out, and folks are taking a real hard look at opportunities that are available at Pearl River Community College."

Dr. John Grant, Vice President for Instruction, said that at times every classroom on both campuses is filled.

"We are out of classroom space in some places during the most popular times of the day, but we are doing what we can to accommodate all the students," said Grant. "This increase presents new challenges for our faculty and administration. More and more people are furthering their education, and they see that Pearl River is a place to do that."

The same is true at PRCC's Forrest County Center in Hattiesburg, according to Dr. Cecil Burt, dean of the center. Enrollment on the Forrest County Center is 1,261 students, up 75, or 6 percent, over last fall.

"This is the most students we've ever had in Hattiesburg," he said.

"We are having to adjust schedules and seek out additional classroom spaces to accommodate the over-load. We're getting it done."

Fall enrollment on the Forrest County Center has gone from 689 in 2001, to 1,022 in 2002, 1,185 in 2003, and 1261 this fall.

According to Chuck Abadie, Director of Public Relations, additional class offerings in Hancock County, where a new Hancock County Center is expected to open this fall, also provided a boost in the overall enrollment number.

"Our marketing efforts in Hancock County, as well as some of our marketing and recruiting efforts throughout our six-county district, have been a big plus for us," said Abadie. "We have a lot of good things happening at Pearl River. PRCC is committed to providing students with the tools to succeed."

Adam Breerwood, dean of student affairs at PRCC, reported that all 300 dormitory rooms on the Poplarville campus are filled, and that there is a waiting list for housing accommodations for male students.

Breerwood attributes this demand to several reasons. "The growth of our college is one thing," said Breerwood. "Number two, the low cost, but quality housing that we provide. Economically, it's a bargain for the students."

He is not surprised that the school's enrollment continues to rise. "The diversity of our curriculum and the quality of instruction are major factors in our enrollment increase," said Breerwood. "Our classes are much smaller than they are in the university system, and that is important to these kids. Plus, it's the best economic value in higher education."

Added Lewis, "This growth in our enrollment shows that our programs are meeting the needs of an increasing number of students, both traditional and non-traditional."

Bay artists headed down 'Abbey' road

THE SEA COAST ECHO
Two Bay St. Louis artists have been invited to host workshops at St. Joseph's Abbey near Covington this fall. During the last week in September, Gwen Impson and Lori Gordon will be offering three day and day and a half sessions, respectively, that explore the use of non-toxic, water-based materials.

Artist/printmaker Gwen Impson's three-day workshop will be a fun filled, intensive session called "Sequential Monotypes." Impson studied printmaking at the Graphics Atelier in Virginia, Pyramid Atlantic in Maryland and the College of Art in New Mexico, and has worked exclusively in printmaking for the past eight years. She opened her own printmaking studio in Bay St. Louis four years ago and has given classes and workshops all along the Gulf Coast. Impson's workshop will cover the basics of monotype printmaking: reductive, additive, layering techniques, as well as the use of texture and stencils. Working with water-based, non-toxic materials ensures spontaneity, as one is free to explore the process without being hampered or harmed by oil-based products.

Impson will demonstrate how the monotype process lends itself to endless experimentation as one idea flows into another. Although monotypes are by their very nature single prints, students will learn to create sequential prints or a series of prints using their own personal imagery.

It's obvious that Impson enjoys teaching and her enthusiasm for printmaking is contagious. She is not only a strong advocate of non-toxic printmaking; she is also committed to demystifying printmaking. She feels that for far too long printmaking has been regulated to another realm of the art world by those who considered the process too involved, too complicated or too forbidden. She delights in showing just how user friendly printmaking can be. Impson works in a variety of printmaking techniques including linocut, monotype and monoprint, collagraph, dry point, acrylic-resist etching and, in her own work, often employs more than one technique. Impson advises that in her classes, no previous printmaking experience is required, only an adventurous mind.

Gwen Impson in her studio

The second workshop will be offered by Lori Gordon. Gordon is known in the area for her ability to produce work in many different media including acrylic, graphite, watercolor and pastel. She is also proficient in mixed media adventures, and utilizes handmade paper and polymer clay in many of her collages. One of Gordon's pieces was recently acquired by the Smithsonian Institution for inclusion into their permanent collection.

For this workshop, Gordon will be teaching a process which she calls "pour" painting. While incorporating various techniques, the common denominator throughout the session will be the abandonment of the artist's paintbrush, as a tool. Instead, a wide array of items will be used to create the paintings. Bottles of water-based paint, plastic wrap, polymer clay, shells, and toothbrushes are only a few of the things which will be used to create impressions with the paint.

The artist explains that there are several benefits to creating fine art without the use of a paintbrush. She says that "For many people who are new to painting, the brush is a frightening thing.

Many beginners feel like they can't draw, and the brush seems to be another drawing tool. It can be very intimidating, and it can also lead to a tendency to work in a very tight and controlled fashion."

By pouring, spraying and misting the paint on the paper, the artist is freed from the restrictions imposed by the brush. The pour method is equally as liberating to those who are not beginners, however. Gordon asserts that painting in too tight a style is a problem for many artists, and that the pour method is an excellent exercise in learning to loosen up.

Both artists believe that the relaxing atmosphere of the Abbey is especially conducive to personal growth and inspiration. Impson says that "The peace and quiet can be a blessing for artists who want to listen to their inner voice. One only has to wander the extensive grounds, listen to the toll of the bells calling the monks to prayer or observe the classic beauty of the church's half century old murals." She also notes that evening hours can be spent in quiet reflection or in further communion with fellow artists.

For more information on the workshops, Gwen Impson may be reached at 228-467-6530, and Lori Gordon can be found at 228-466-9253. For additional information on St. Joseph's Abbey and its art programs, contact Adrienne Laborde at 985-867-2221.

Olde Towne Players to host auditions for 'The Exonerated'

Olde Towne Players will hold auditions for "The Exonerated" at 7 p.m. Sept. 8 and 9 at the depot in Bay St. Louis.

The docudrama, based primarily on interviews, police reports and court transcripts, focuses on five people who were convicted of murder, sentenced to death row and later exonerated. Co-directors Becky Rotundo and Nan Ehrbright need about a dozen actors and actresses for the play, including several African-Americans for major roles. The play is scheduled for late fall production.

"The Exonerated" is a readers' theatre vehicle, which means actors read their lines -- no necessity to memorize, thus a short rehearsal schedule.

For details, call 467-5563.

'The Partridge Family' hatches eggs on VH1

By Jay Bobbin
© Zap2it

C'mon, get happy: "The Partridge Family" is returning.

But it's not the original show about the musical clan. VH1 initiated a competition for novice actors to play the main characters in an update, and the auditions are shown as the unscripted series "In Search of the Partridge Family" premieres Sunday, Sept. 5.

Original stars David Cassidy, Danny Bonaduce and Shirley Jones (Cassidy's real-life stepmother) participate in the process, with viewers able to cast votes and help determine who will form the new "Family" in a pilot expected to air later this year.

New York, Los Angeles, Orlando, Fla., and Minneapolis were the locations to which would-be Partridges flocked. A teen idol when he was Keith Partridge by day and a top concert draw by night in the early 1970s, Cassidy is pleased about the revival, given the effect he believes the initial show still has.

"I live it every day," he says. "People come up to me and tell me they have been touched in some way by it, and it's a very wonderful thing for me. When you do something that has had such a positive impact, it's inevitable that it's going to be spun into something else."

"I also think the climate of the planet the last week of 1969, when we made our pilot, is not that dissimilar to the climate of the world we live in today," Cassidy adds. "(The original show) was, in its time and in its day and in its moment, perfect for what it was. I wanted it to stay there. The reason I'm involved in this is not because they're paying me sh—loads of money. The truth of the matter is that I'm doing this because I love the show and I want this to be good."

Also serving as co-executive producer of "In Search of the Partridge Family," Cassidy has continued to perform in Las Vegas and elsewhere, but he maintains the notion of doing television is "still frightening to me. The idea of going before America and doing a scene ... the anxiety in me for these people is going to be great. I want to be able to try to mentor them, to get them to focus. I want them to be as good as they can be."

Horoscope This Week

By Caroline James - Zap2it

Sept. 5 through Sept. 11, 2004
Aries (March 21 - April 20)

Have you been doing enough to feed your soul? It's time to take a hard look at the balance between spiritual and worldly matters.

Taurus (April 21 - May 20)

Restoring balance to your home life can come through communication and time away from your family.

Gemini (May 21 - June 20)

Are you getting as much as you're giving? It might be time to talk to your associates about the balance in duties.

Cancer (June 21 - July 20)

Either you are spending too much or earning too little. Either way, it's time to change your financial planning.

Leo (July 21 - Aug. 21)

You can benefit from a stringent evaluation of your values in life. If what you are doing doesn't match what you believe, you know what to do.

Virgo (Aug. 22 - Sept. 22)

Honesty and transparency are the essential qualities in any relationship. Make sure you're stepping up to the plate.

Libra (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22)

Are the people closest to you really good for you? Take stock of your relationships and eliminate those that don't work.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 - Nov. 22)

It could be that you need to talk to your employer about getting more money for the work you are doing. Plan your strategy.

Sagittarius (Nov. 23 - Dec. 30)

How far is your education getting you in life? If the answer is not enough, then work to change it.

Capricorn (Dec. 21 - Jan. 19)

You're tied to other people's money, and you need to figure out how that's paying off for you in the long run.

Aquarius (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18)

Some aspects of your closest partnership could be better. Sit down and talk to your partner about it.

Pisces (Feb. 19 - March 20)

A flash of inspiration could come to you regarding how to make your life better. Here's a hint: It starts with your health.

"NASCAR Racing" Sunday, Sept. 5 (NBC, 7 p.m. ET): Nextel Cup's season-closing "Chase for the Championship" begins in just two weeks, so today's inaugural Pop Secret 500 under the lights of California Speedway is vital for drivers scrambling for points. One who is firmly entrenched in the top 10 is Jeff Gordon, who was challenging Jimmie Johnson for the lead after 22 races, five of which Gordon has won. He's raced particularly well at this track in his native state, with three wins in eight career starts.

"MLB Baseball" Sunday, Sept. 5 (ESPN, 8 p.m. ET): If the season started in mid-July, the Baltimore Orioles would be in contention. The O's, who visit Derek Jeter and the Yankees tonight, have been one of the AL's hottest teams since the All-Star break, winning 20 of its first 32 games. As he has all season, leading the way in his inaugural season in Baltimore has been shortstop Miguel Tejada, who posted a major league tops 107 RBIs while playing in his team's first 118 games.

"College Football" Monday, Sept. 6 (ABC, 8 p.m. ET): A quick glance at the bevy of talent on the field tonight may have you thinking the NFL began its season early. Actually, it's just collegiate powerhouses Florida State and Miami kicking off their regular-season and ACC slate. That's right, the Hurricanes are now in the ACC, where they look to continue their dominance of the Seminoles, whom they've beaten five straight times. QBs Brock Berlin from Miami and FSU's Chris Rix will be spotlighted.

Jeff Gordon is among the drivers scheduled to compete in the NASCAR Pop Secret 500 auto race, which NBC will televise Sunday.

Celebrity Scoop

Paulo Costanzo

By John Crook
© Zap2it

Paulo Costanzo owes his agent, big-time.

The handsome 25-year-old Canadian newcomer landed the coveted role of Michael Tribbiani, the title character's nephew in NBC's "Joey," the Thursday night "Friends" spin-off that is easily the fall's most anticipated new sitcom.

He nearly didn't even audition for the part.

"I had told my agent not to send me in on any sitcoms, because I had read and auditioned for so many that were just crap," Costanzo says. "And the second I heard 'spinoff,' I said, 'No, absolutely not, I don't want to do it.' We actually got into a huge argument over it, but he finally convinced me I had to go in on this thing."

Impressed by the writing, Costanzo worked hard to prepare and delivered a reading that virtually won him the job on the spot. He credits TV uncle Matt LeBlanc with making the set a relaxed place where it's easy to polish his sitcom chops.

An only child, Costanzo overcame insecurity and panic attacks in his teens to get roles in Canadian TV shows. His big break came with the raucous 2000 movie comedy "Road Trip," although he clashed with director Todd Phillips.

"It was my first big film, and his, too, and we were both control freaks and perfectionists," Costanzo says. "For some reason, it actually wound up helping my performance, though."

He's feeling confident about his work these days on "Joey."

"I'm learning exponentially," he says. "The only problem with that is, by the time you finish episode four, you really want to go back and redo the pilot. You just can't think that way. You have to learn to be comfortable with where you are right now."

Born: Brampton, Ontario, Canada on Sept. 21, 1978.

Family ties: Mother is a singing teacher, singer and songwriter; father is a set dresser. No siblings.

TV guest appearances: "Ready or Not," "Psi Factor: Chronicles of the Paranormal."

TV movies: "Rescuers: Stories of Courage: Two Couples," "My Date With the President's Daughter," "The Don's Analyst."

Film credits: "Road Trip," "Josie and the Pussycats," "Gypsy, 83," "40 Days and 40 Nights," "Scorched," "A Problem With Fear."

Ultimate goal: "I want to make enough money to be able to support both my parents for the rest of their lives. That's always been an idea of mine. It's what drives me to do as well as I can."

LeBlanc feeling confident as 'Joey' begins

By John Crook
© Zap2it

His TV alter ego is still struggling to make it in Hollywood, but Matt LeBlanc is sitting pretty these days in real life.

At 37, the two-time Emmy nominee knows there are no sure things in television, but he's feeling pretty confident about "Joey," the sitcom spinoff premiering Thursday, Sept. 9, in the same time period previously occupied by its parent show, "Friends."

The new series finds Joey Tribbiani (LeBlanc) finally ready to make a serious stab at an acting career, now that his New York chums have married or otherwise moved on with their lives.

With that new resolve, Joey moves to Los Angeles, where he reunites with his older sister, Gina (Drea de Matteo, hot off "The Sopranos"), and her 20-year-old son, Michael (Paulo Costanzo), the nephew he barely knows.

Just as "Frasier" did so successfully before it, "Joey" takes a beloved comedy character and moves him into a completely new, family-centric context that opens up new story lines. The show is largely written and produced by "Friends" alumni, and early critical buzz is very, very favorable.

"When you are lucky enough to find a character that somehow connects with viewers the way they connected with Joey Tribbiani, I think to come back as a completely different character is just asking a lot of an audience," LeBlanc says. "Obviously, we're following the 'Frasier' model, where a familiar character continues without a break, just in a different context."

If LeBlanc feels relaxed and reasonably confident about his life and career, things were very different a decade ago when "Friends" was about to premiere. In a fall 1994 interview, LeBlanc admitted to being depressed and lonely, missing his close-knit family back in Massachusetts.

"That was a very tough time for me," LeBlanc says today. "I was at a crossroads when 'Friends' came around. I had been struggling as an actor for quite a while, had a little bit of success here and there, but at that particular point, and for a year prior to that, I was really hurting. I was really questioning whether I was going to spend the rest of my life doing this, or whether I needed to read the hand-writing on the wall and get a 'real' job and become more responsible in terms of thinking about my future."

"It was just a lousy, lousy feeling, and I was missing my family probably more than I ever had before. Some things haven't changed, in that respect. I can fly back and forth, and my family can come out there, but they're mainly still back East, and I'm out here where I have my own family now. My mom comes out to visit her new granddaughter quite a bit."

The actor is referring to Marina LeBlanc, his first child, born last February to LeBlanc and his wife, Melissa, whom he married in 2003. LeBlanc also is a doting stepdad to Melissa's two children from her first marriage.

If his real family is the most important thing in LeBlanc's life, family also played a key role in persuading him to sign on for "Joey," a character whose own family life on "Friends" was vague and ill-defined.

Paulo Costanzo, Drea de Matteo and Matt LeBlanc form the family ensemble at the core of "Joey," NBC's Thursday sitcom that explores new facets of LeBlanc's character on the long-running "Friends."

"If you look at the arc of Joey's character on 'Friends,' vs. the other characters on that show, Joey was actually the least-developed character," LeBlanc points out. "Remember those holiday episodes? It was generally the Gellers or the Greens, or maybe the Bings. There was, I think, one episode my parents were in, and that was very early on. You just didn't learn much about Joey's family, ever."

"The good thing is, that gives us this wonderful blank page to design what his relationship is with his older sister, Gina. I'm really looking forward to that, because Drea is terrific and brings a lot to the table."

Q Please tell me everything you can about Jason Wiles, who plays Bosco on "Third Watch." -Flo in Palm Harbor, Fla.

A A native of Lenexa, Kan., Jason Wiles, 34, says he was sure of his acting goals at an early age, and landed his first work as an extra and a stand-in. After making a few connections with filmmakers and crew members working on movies in the Kansas City, Mo., area, Wiles relocated to Los Angeles to study acting.

He supported himself in commercials until he landed a part in the 1993 TV movie "Big Boys Don't Cry." Small roles in films such as "Higher Learning" and "Windrunner" followed, but Wiles got his big break when he was cast as Collin Robbins in "Beverly Hills, 90210" (1995-96).

His next series role, in CBS' 1998 drama "To Have and to Hold," flopped quickly, but he was cast in "Third Watch" soon after that. During his recent break from the hit NBC series, Wiles has been working on the feature film "Heart of the Beholder," a drama in which he appears with John Dye ("Touched by an Angel"), Greg Germann ("Ally McBeal") and Matt Letscher ("Good Morning, Miami").

Wiles lives in New York with his wife, Joanne, and their two kids.

Q What caused the death of the actress who played Lila Quartermaine on "General Hospital"? -Nancy S. via e-mail.

A Veteran English actress Anna Lee, who joined the ABC soap in 1978, died of pneumonia on May 14. She was 91.

Q I have heard a song on "The 4400" and "Six Feet Under" with lyrics that start "Bye bye, baby, don't be long." Any idea what it is? -Madeline Kirby, Reading, Pa.

A Yes, because it's really making the rounds, having also served as the opening theme to "Kingdom Hospital." That's "Worry About You" by Ivy, from her compact disc "Long Distance."

Kirsten takes 'Clubhouse' by storm

Name

By Paulette Cohn
© Zap2it

There's a new Belle Black in Salem these days, and the old Belle, Kirsten Storms, is hoping that viewers will be kind to her replacement.

"Fans really don't like it when you recast," Storms says. "I think that is really tough. I was kind of a recast. They aged my character and I remember people just hated it when I first started. Gradually, they began to like me more."

Storms gave up her five-year role in "Days of Our Lives" when her CBS prime-time pilot, "Clubhouse," was picked up for the fall season. The Soap Opera Digest Award winner is looking forward to making the transition from the goody-two-shoes Belle to wild-child Betsy.

"I can relate to a lot of things Betsy does," says Storms, who expects to use incidents from her real life in playing the role. "I've sat and talked with the executive producer about my first tattoo and the first time I ever had a drink of alcohol, things that she's going to be experiencing, too."

The biggest transition for Storms is the pace. In daytime, she had a call time of 7 a.m. and was done by noon. In prime time, a 7 a.m. call can keep her on the set until midnight. But as a GameCube addict, Storms knows exactly how she will be spending her time.

"I am obsessed with James Bond," she shares. "I like 'Night-Fire' and 'Agent Under Fire.'" In other "Days" news, Billie Reed will be back. This time out, the feisty fem will be played by Julie Pinson (ex-Shiloh, "Y&F"; ex-Eve, "Port Charles"). Her first airdate is Sept. 13.

Dear Paulette: Many of us "As the World Turns" viewers in Michigan are questioning who is the mother of Nikki Munson? -J. Michael, Jackson, Mich.

Dear Reader: When Nikki first came to town, she was Nikki Graves, daughter of Lynda Graves. It was Margo who discovered that Nikki was the daughter Hal never knew he had, and since that time, Nikki has changed her surname to Munson. Hal was divorced from Lynda before he came to Oakdale.

Family Best Bets

Sunday

7 p.m. and TNT

Movie: You've Got Mail
1940's "The Shop Around the Corner" is updated for the digital age in this 1998 romantic comedy. Tom Hanks and Meg Ryan ("Sleepless in Seattle") star as business rivals having an online romance, not knowing that the objects of their respective affections are ... each other. Parker Posey, Greg Kinnear and Jean Stapleton also star.

Wednesday

2:30 p.m. on HBO

Movie: Honey, I Blew Up the Kid
Wayne (Rick Moranis) just can't stop inventing and this time, he's in big trouble. He's created an enlarging ray gun, which accidentally goes off — zapping his toddler son, Adam (Daniel and Joshua Shalikar). Now Wayne must stop his giant child from destroying the city. Marcia Strassman, Lloyd Bridges and Ken Russell co-star.

7 p.m. on 19-PBS

Great Performances

Most musicians have to start somewhere in the creative process and John Lennon was no exception. In the new episode "John Lennon's Jukebox," viewers take a look at the personal collection of albums that influenced Lennon's musical ideas. Performer Sting comments.

8 p.m. on 19-PBS

The Video Game Revolution

This new special takes an in-depth look at the video game industry and the consumers who make it so successful. Hosted by filmmaker Greg Palmer, the documentary includes game footage from some of the first video games created. Those interviewed include Atari creator Nolan Bushnell, designer Shigeru Miyamoto and programmer Tim Moss.

Friday

7 p.m. on FAM

Movie: Pop Rocks!

A man's past comes back to bite him in this new movie starring Gary Cole. Jerry (Cole) is a nice, stable family man with a secret: He used to be the lead singer for a heavy-metal group in the 1980s. Well, his old bandmates are back and they want a reunion performance. Now, Jerry has to hide his old occupation while practicing for a comeback. Sherilyn Fenn and David Jensen co-star.

Saturday

10 a.m. on TNT

Movie: Rudy

Sean Astin stars in the title role as a muddling student and athlete from a working-class background who dreams of playing football at Notre Dame. Hollywood embellishes a bit on the details, but Rudy's story of determination against all odds is true. Ned Beatty, Charles S. Dutton and Lili Taylor co-star in the 1993 drama from the director David Anspaugh and writer Angelo Pizzo.

Movie: It Could Happen to You

Charlie (Nicolas Cage), a good-hearted New York cop, finds himself short of money to tip the coffee-shop waitress (Bridget Fonda) who served his lunch. So he promises to split his winnings with her if his lottery numbers come up. And guess what? Charlie is tempted to renege on his pledge but those darned morals keep getting in the way. Rosie Perez, Wendell Pierce and Isaac Hayes co-star in this 1994 comedy-drama.

TV Trivia

Jennifer Connelly ("A Beautiful Mind") released a single in Japan called "Monologue of Love." She sang it in Japanese.

John Savage ("Carnivale") spent six years in South Africa working for the anti-apartheid movement with Nelson Mandela.

Desi Arnaz ("I Love Lucy") invented the rerun. He re-aired some episodes to give Lucille Ball a rest while she was pregnant.

Bette Midler ("The First Wives Club") worked at a pineapple processing plant in her native Hawaii before becoming the Divine Miss M.

Sean Hayes ("Will & Grace") is a talented musician. He initially supported himself as a classical pianist and a music director.

Sunday Best Bets

6 p.m. on 8-FOX on 25-FOX

Movie: The Lost World: Jurassic Park

Dinosaurs make it to the mainland in this 1997 sequel to Steven Spielberg's first giant-lizard thriller. A researcher (Julianne Moore) and her boyfriend (Jeff Goldblum) head for a remote island to study more of John Hammond's (Richard Attenborough) miraculous reptiles, but trouble follows as interlopers compromise the controlled environment.

6 p.m. on 6-NBC
NASCAR Racing

Nextel Cup's season-closing "Chase for the Championship" begins in just two weeks, so today's inaugural Pop Secret 500 under the lights of California Speedway is vital for drivers scrambling for points. One who is firmly entrenched in the top 10 is Jeff Gordon, who was the overall leader after 23 races, five of which Gordon has won. He's raced particularly well at this track in his native state, with three wins in eight career starts.

7 p.m. on 38-WB
Charmed

Part 1 of "It's a Bad, Bad, Bad, Bad World" involves a happy event: the imminent birth of Piper's (Holly Marie Combs) baby. There's trouble for just about everyone else, though, as Leo and Chris (Brian Krause, Drew Fuller) are trapped in a parallel world where they encounter their evil doppelgängers. Phoebe and Paige (Alyssa Milano, Rose McGowan) try to save them.

7 p.m. and HALL

Movie: Murder Without Conviction

Newly departed from a convent, an ex-nun (Megan Ward, "Dark Skies") re-enters the outside world — and promptly becomes

7 p.m. and TBS

Movie: The Whole Nine Yards

A dentist (Matthew Perry) with an unhappy marriage and a lot of debt discovers his new neighbor (Bruce Willis) is a former mob hit man from Chicago trying to start over. The dentist's wife (Rosanna Arquette) learns the man has a price on his head and persuades her husband to go to Chicago, rat him out and collect the bounty. The men's unexpected friendship gets in the way. Michael Clarke Duncan and Amanda Peet co-star in this 2000 comedy.

7 p.m. and TNT

Movie: You've Got Mail

1940's "The Shop Around the Corner" is updated for the digital age in this 1998 romantic comedy. Tom Hanks and Meg Ryan ("Sleepless in Seattle") star as business rivals having an online romance, not knowing that the objects of their respective affections are ... each other. Parker Posey, Greg Kinnear and Jean Stapleton also star.

8 p.m. on 4-CBS

Movie: Second Honeymoon

Married for 20 years, Maggie and George (Roma Downey, Tim Matheson) are about to go public with their decision to split up when relatives surprise them with an anniversary party and a romantic island vacation. They decide to take the trip and get one of those quickie island divorces while they're away, but they end up having to wait 48 hours for the papers. Hey, anything can happen in two days — and it will in this 2001 comedy-drama.

9 p.m. on 26-ABC on 13-ABC

The Practice

The courtroom showdown between Shore (James Spader) and his former co-workers is hardly pleasant, yet sometimes oddly amusing, in "The Case Against Alan Shore." Eugene (Steve Harris) is determined not to lose the trial over the lawsuit filed by Shore. Ellenor (Camryn Manheim) tries to cope with the realization that if Shore wins, it will spell the end of the law firm as she has known it.

TV Jumble

TV JUMBLE

Use the clues to help unscramble the four jumbles, one letter to each square, to form four words.

KROPE Clue: A game played on TV

NSOOTB Clue: S.M.'s or D.C.'s home

HIYNTGL Clue: news

ELITRRLH Clue: Type of movie

Bonus

Then arrange the circled letters to form the bonus answer, as suggested by the above cartoon and bonus clue.

Monday Best Bets

7 p.m. on 5-FOX on 25-FOX
North Shore

Not long after the end of its maiden season, the drama series about Hawaii's fictional Grand Waimea resort and its staff starts its second with "Ties That Bind." Jason (Kristofer Polaha) tries to link Walter Booth (guest star Christopher McDonald) to the fire that destroyed the surf shop run by Jason's father, Gabriel (Corey Sevier) meets his apparent dream girl — who becomes his nightmare. Melissa Rivers guest stars as herself.

7 p.m. and 11 p.m.
Movie: Wedding Daze

Preparing for one wedding might seem crazy, but try handling three at once. John Larroquette and the rarely seen Karen Valentine ("Room 222") play the parents of three brides in this new comedy movie. Mom and Dad plan to travel the world — until their grown daughters (Marina Black, Jaime Ray Newman, Kelly Overton) move back home, then end up planning their nuptials simultaneously.

French Stewart ("3rd Rock From the Sun") co-stars.

7:30 p.m. on 4-CBS

Yes, Dear

Greg's (Anthony Clark) good intentions for Jimmy and Christine (Mike O'Malley, Liza Snyder) on their anniversary launch a big battle between the couple. In "Shirley Cooks With Love," a video made by Greg recalls the spouses' wedding day, and what they recall while watching it causes problems... and also gives Greg trouble with Kim (Jean Louisa Kelly).

8 p.m. on 6-NBC

Hawaii

Their accidental discovery of explosives clues Gains and Edwards (Eric Balfour, Ivan Sergei) into an intended bank robbery in the new episode "Underground." The police detectives assume aliases to get the goods on the criminals from the inside. Harrison and Declan (Michael Biehn, Sharif Atkins) stake out a birthday party in a bid to capture the guest of honor's father, a fugitive mobster.

Jaime Ray Newman, Marina Black and Kelly Overton (from left)

Tuesday Best Bets

7 p.m. on 38-WB

Gilmore Girls

Liz's (guest star Kathleen Wilhoite) elaborate wedding provides the framework for "Last Week Fights, This Week Tights." After Lorelai and Luke (Lauren Graham, Scott Patterson) share a dance at the reception, he asks her out. Rory (Alexis Bledel) overdoes it at an early summer-vacation party and summons Dean (Jared Padalecki), but Jess (Milo Ventimiglia) interrupts them.

7:30 p.m. on 54-UPN

Eve

J.T. (Jason George) gets a different view of Shelly (Eve) — one that may not bode well for the future of their relationship — in Part 1 of "They've Come Undone." Shelly's appearance in an ad for a "Girls Gone Wild"-type video doesn't please J.T. and his parents (guest stars Daphne Maxwell-Reid and Richard Gant), forcing him to consider that she may not be the woman for him.

8 p.m. on 8-FOX on 25-FOX

The Next Great Champ

In the unscripted-series competition, it looked to be this show vs. NBC's similarly themed "The Contender." At least in the race to get on the air first, the winner is ... this program! Boxing veteran Oscar De La Hoya plays a big role in determining which of the 12 competitors will outlast the others, thus winning a professional fight contract and a WBO title bout. This debut episode offers extensive profiles of the contestants.

According to Jim

Cheryl's (Courtney Thorne-Smith) former boyfriend (guest star Ed Quinn) starts dating Dana (Kimberly Williams-Paisley), much to Cheryl's displeasure, in "Everyone Gets Dumped." He is befriended by Jim (Jim Belushi), who just wants to enjoy the man's Chicago Cubs season tickets. Cheryl's warnings to both Dana and Jim go unheeded — until it's too late.

8 p.m. on 38-WB

One Tree Hill

A charity auction finds Lucas, Nathan and Jake (Chad Michael Murray, James Lafferty, guest star Bryan Greenberg) up for grabs to the highest bidders in "To Wish Impossible Things." Each "Boy Toy," as the auction bids them, finds himself reunited with an old flame as a result. Brooke (Sophia Bush) misses the event and winds up with Mouth (guest star Lee Norris).

8 p.m. on 6-NBC

Father of the Pride

Larry (voice of John Goodman) has second thoughts about becoming the lead lion in Siegfried and Roy's (voices of Julian Holloway and Dave Herman) show when they promise he will be at the crux of their innovative magic act in the new episode "Larry's Debut, and Sweet Daryl Hannah, Too." A nervous Larry seeks advice from Sarmoti (voice of Carl Reiner). "Today" co-anchor Matt Lauer voices his animated likeness.

8:30 p.m. on 6-NBC

Scrubs

J.D. (Zach Braff) gets unexpected competition in Elliot (Sarah Chalke), who's been prompted by Molly (guest star Heather Graham) for the position of chief resident in the new episode "M.O. Office."

Carla (Judy Reyes) is jealous of the attention Molly gets from everyone else. Dr. Cox and Turk (John C. McGinley) are also in the spotlight.

Tom Skerritt

Donald Faison) have a sensitive situation involving a patient and a light bulb.

9 p.m. on 6-NBC

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit

A parent previously accused of child abuse is the likeliest suspect in the poisoning of her adopted son in "Poison." Stabler and Benson's (Christopher Meloni, Mariska Hargitay) case against her is complicated when prosecutor Novak (Diane Neal) runs up against a difficult judge (guest star Tom Skerritt).

9 p.m. on MTV

The Real World

It's the City of Brotherly Love, but Philadelphia might not be able to keep the spirits and emotions of the unscripted series' latest septet of strangers-turned-housemates in check. The 15th season begins in a new city with a new group of participants, and as usual, all is sweetness and light between them as their shared adventure begins. Give it a couple of weeks, though, since conflict is what this show thrives on.

Wednesday Best Bets

7 p.m. on 8-FOX on 25-FOX

That '70s Show

Eric (Topher Grace) charts his immediate future, though it's not what Red (Kurtwood Smith) hoped for, as the sitcom begins its seventh season with "Time Is on My Side." Eric decides to sell Donna's (Laura Prepon) engagement ring and use the cash to do nothing for the next year — but the ring isn't as readily accessible as he thought. Bob (Don Stark) must choose between Midge and Pamela (guest stars Tanya Roberts and Brooke Shields).

7:30 p.m. on 8-FOX on 25-FOX

Quintuplets

Following its introductory summer run, the sitcom begins its second season with "The Sixth Quint." One of the guests (guest star Alice Greczyn) at Paige's (Sarah Wright) slumber party prompts the male quintuplets (Ryan Pinkston, Johnny Lewis, Jake McDorman) to become rivals for her affection — and household patriarch Bob (Andy Richter) to become unhappy about the situation.

8 p.m. on 8-FOX on 25-FOX

The Bernie Mac Show

Bernie (Bernie Mac) fears Vanessa (Camille Winbush) is keeping secrets from him in the sitcom's fourth-season premiere, "Big Brother." He becomes so paranoid, he invests in surveillance equipment to keep up not only on her activities, but also every other household member's. He soon wishes he didn't know as much as he does. Snoop Dogg guest stars.

8 p.m. on 4-CBS

The King of Queens

Doug (Kevin James) is unhappy about the major roles his grade-school enemy (guest star Jon Favreau, "Swingers") suddenly has in the lives of Carrie and Deacon (Leah Remini, Victor Williams) in

"Trash Talker." The nemesis, a new friend of Deacon's, may end up becoming Carrie's boss — which doesn't sit well with Doug, who only knows him for the misery he caused during their childhood.

8:30 p.m. on 26-ABC on 13-ABC

The Drew Carey Show

Cleveland rocks for the last time for Carey — on this show, anyway, since he's moving on to a new one — with "Finale," the episode that wraps up this sitcom's nine-season run: Drew (Carey) wants to marry Kellie (Cynthia Watros) before she delivers their baby, and when she goes into labor sooner than expected, he races to put the nuptials together at the hospital. Past guest stars Marion Ross and Adrienne Barbeau return.

8:30 p.m. on 4-CBS

CBS Fall Preview

Charlie Sheen and Jon Cryer had a great freshman year in ratings terms with their CBS sitcom "Two and a Half Men," and they introduce the network's newcomers in this special. The dramas include "CSI: NY," with Gary Sinise and Melina Kanakaredes as TV's newest forensic investigators, and the baseball-team saga "Clubhouse," the debuting comedies are "Listen Up" with Jason Alexander and "Center of the Universe" with John Goodman.

9 p.m. on 6-NBC

Law & Order

A newlywed's wedding night turns out to be his final night as well, since his body is found in bed the next morning, in "Caviar Emptor." A caviar tycoon, the man may have been killed by his bride — or by his own daughter, as suggested by the murder weapon found in her bedroom. Briscoe and Green (Jerry Orbach, Jesse L. Martin) try to determine who is telling the truth.

Here's Your Sign

Comedian Bill Engvall keeps the time slot of his current series, "Blue Collar TV," as he appears in his own hourlong special. Taking its title from his trademark line, it showcases him in his stand-up routine before a live audience. "Blue Collar" comrade Jeff Foxworthy remains better-known to the masses, but this spotlight should help Engvall better establish himself with more viewers.

8 p.m. on 26-ABC on 13-ABC
NFL Football

A rematch of the AFC Championship Game between the New England Patriots and the Indianapolis Colts kicks off the much-anticipated NFL season, as well as ABC's 35th year of "Monday Night Football." The league keeps gaining in popularity, which is no surprise given the array of talent such as tonight's two starting quarterbacks. Two-time Super Bowl MVP Tom Brady leads the world champion Pats, and reigning NFL MVP Peyton Manning powers Indy's offense.

9 p.m. on 6-NBC

Medical Investigation

"CSI" fans are likely to recognize some stylistic techniques used in the premiere episode of this drama series, in which mysterious illnesses are the pursued. "Villains" Neal McDonough ("Boomtown") plays the chief of a National Institutes of Health squad dispatched to sites where people have been killed by yet-unidentified diseases. Kelli Williams ("The Practice") also stars in the show, which normally will air on Fridays.

7 p.m. on 26-ABC

George Lopez

Carmen (Masiela Lusha) gets help from a friend (guest star Johnny Pacar) in trying to keep her romance with Zack (guest star Trevor Wright) a secret from her parents (George Lopez, Constance Marie) in "What George Doesn't Know." The deception is destined to last only so long.

7 p.m. on 4-CBS

Joan of Arcadia
Joan (Amber Tamblyn) gets a heavenly order.

to join the school debate team in "State of Grace." She's partnered with a stutterer (guest star Dan Byrd) who joins her in defending school security practices that have drawn protest. Grace (Becky Wahlestrom), who is firmly against them, resents Joan's position. Will (Joe Mantegna) seeks the perpetrator of a hate crime against a clergyman.

7 p.m. on 38-WB

What I Like About You

Holly (Amanda Bynes) tries to choose between Henry and Vince (Michael McMillan, Nick Zano) before she leaves for Paris in "The Second Season: Finale." Val (Jennie Garth) tries to get her mind off Rick's (guest star Ed Kerr) imminent wedding by planning a trip to Venice with Lauren (Leslie Grossman).

Gary and Tina (Wesley Jonathan, Allison Munn) consider romance.

7 p.m. on 54-UPN

Star Trek: Enterprise

Time is of the essence, and a major attack seems unavoidable, as the Xindi superweapon races toward Earth in "Countdown." Archer (Scott Bakula) teams with former enemies to stop the thieves determined to deploy the powerful device, which the abducted and brainwashed Hoshi (Linda Park) might activate. T'Pol and Trip (Jolene Blalock, Connor Trinneer) battle the aliens who made the Xindi hate humanity.

7 p.m. on FAM

Movie: Pop/Rocks!

Gary Cole ("Midnight Caller") puts humorous twists on his strait-laced image, as he did in the "Brady Bunch" theatrical films, in this new comedy movie. He plays a banker whose past as a heavy-metal rocker isn't widely known. He tries to keep the secret as he reunites with his former bandmates for a concert, aiming to use the paycheck to fund private-school tuition for his musically inclined son. Sherilyn Fenn also stars.

7:30 p.m. on 26-ABC

8 Simple Rules

In "Finale Part Un," Cate (Katey Sagal) has a run-in with the school principal (guest star Adam Arkin) over a form needed for Kerry's (Amy Davidson) school trip. Jim (James Garner) gets more serious with his new girlfriend (guest star Connie Stevens), much to Cate's dismay.

7:30 p.m. on 38-WB

Grounded for Life

In "Space Camp Oddity," Brad (Bret Harrison) resents Lily's (Lynsey Bartilson) belief that he made up his alleged space-camp girlfriend (guest star Mila Kunis, "That '70s Show"). He leaves for the summer with the other young woman. Hope (guest star Kristin Dattilo) tells a secret about Eddie (Kevin Fitzgerald Corrigan) to Claudia (Megyn Price), who tells Sean (Donal Logue) — who tells Eddie.

8:30 p.m. on 38-WB

Reba

Barbra Jean (Melissa Peterman) wants to have another baby in "Core Focus." She asks for Reba's (Reba McEntire) help in convincing Brock (Christopher Rich), but she then suspects the two are having an affair. Cheyenne and Van (JoAnna Garcia, Steve Howey) ask Reba to co-sign the lease on the penthouse they want to move into.

9 p.m. on 6-NBC

Medical Investigation

The new series settles into its regular slot with "In Bloom," sending the medical team to St. Louis to investigate four teenagers' cases of encephalitis. The youths' parents aren't pleased by Connor and Natalie's (Neal McDonough, Kelli Williams) suggestion that a sexually transmitted disease is at fault. Eva (Anna Belknap) tries to determine if the victims actually were poisoned.

Saturday Best Bets

7 p.m. on 8-FOX on 25-FOX

Cops

The series that revolutionized unscripted programming starts its 17th season by continuing to profile the work of police units across the United States. While the locations may differ, the crimes often seem the same, whether they involve drug trafficking or prostitution — or, in cases where emotions run particularly high, domestic disputes. New Orleans and Jacksonville, Fla., are the settings of the segments featured here.

7 p.m. on 4-CBS
U.S. Open Tennis

The only Grand Slam tournament to have a championship match presented in prime time, the U.S. Open's women's final just may live up to that lofty billing. When the matches commenced two weeks ago, the field featured the top 100 ranked women in the world, including the singles champ from the past six years. Who will emerge victorious this time? Dick Enberg, John McEnroe and Mary Carillo call the shots from Flushing Meadows, N.Y.

7 p.m. on HBO

Movie: X2: X-Men United

The gifted mutants face more opposition from society in encoring director Bryan Singer's well-crafted 2003 sequel to the first live-action version of the Marvel comic book. The heroes suffer blame for an assault possibly committed by another mutant, but a military general (Brian Cox) is the mastermind. Hugh Jackman, Halle Berry, Patrick Stewart, Anna Paquin, Ian McKellen and Rebecca Romijn-Stamos return. Alan Cumming is an effective addition as Nightcrawler.

9 p.m. on 6-NBC

Crossing Jordan

Jordan and Devan (Jill Hennessy, Jennifer Finnigan) differ on whether a police officer's punch was the cause of a young athlete's death during a drug raid in "Most Likely." The principal (guest star John Scherer) of the deceased youth's high school interferes in the case. Woody (Jerry O'Connell) doesn't get much help from a landlady (guest star Shirley Knight) in probing the fate that befell one of her boarders.

John McEnroe
